The Book of Light

Chapter 1: *The Language of Words

Words are an extremely vital part of human communication or what we call language. The origin of language and its evolutionary emergence in the human species have been a subject of speculation for centuries. The topic has been deemed difficult to study because of the lack of direct evidence. But is there really a lack of evidence?

The Tower of Babel narrative, in the Book of Genesis of the Holy Bible, is a clear origin myth that explains why the world's people speak different languages.

According to the story, a united nation of people following the Great Flood, speaking a single language and migrating westward, came to the land of Shinar in ancient Babylon to build a tower so high that it would reach the heavens and put them on a par with GOD.

But GOD was not having it, so HE disrupted the construction of the tower by confusing the people's language so that they could not understand each other, and HE then dispersed them across the entire Earth. Let's take a look at that passage.

Genesis 11:1-9 (The Book of the Jews)

Now the whole Earth had one language and the same words. And as people migrated from the east, they found a plain in the land of Shinar and settled there. And they said to one another, "Come, let us make bricks, and burn them thoroughly." And they had brick for stone, and bitumen for mortar.

Then they said, "Come, let us build ourselves a City and a Tower with its top in the heavens, and let us make a name for ourselves, lest we be dispersed over the face of the whole Earth.”

The Book of Light

And The Lord came down to see the city and the tower, which the children of man had built. And The Lord said, “Behold, they are one people, and they have all one language, and this is only the beginning of what they will do. And nothing that they propose to do will now be impossible for them. Come, let us go down and there confuse their language, so that they may not understand one another’s speech.”

So, The Lord dispersed them from there over the face of all the Earth, and they left off building the city. Therefore, its name was called Babel, because there The Lord confused the language of all the Earth. And from there The Lord dispersed them over the face of all the Earth.

This passage serves as the origin of the word babel and marks the end of the Adamic language, the language God primarily used to address Adam in the Garden of Eden. Babel here should not be confused with the word babble. The two words are a classic example of what is known as homophones, words that sound alike, but have different meanings. Other examples of homophonous words in the English language are: weak and week, compliment and complement, there or their or they’re, and rain or rein or reign.

Let’s use a standard dictionary to define babel and babble:

babel (noun): a confused noise made by a number of voices. (“the babel of voices on the road”)

In short, the word babel is a synonym for the word clamor.

babble (verb): to talk rapidly and continuously in a foolish, excited, or incomprehensible way. (“they babbled on about their vacation”)

babble (noun): artificial cooing sounds uttered by an infant or toddler who does not yet produce recognizable words. (“I could not understand the baby’s babble”)

The language of words can get very tricky and confusing, from spelling, conjugation, or just simply definition.

The Book of Light

Aside from homophonous words, there are palindromic words. A palindrome is a word or a phrase that reads the same forward and backward. For example, the English words: deified, level, madam, and radar; the names: Asa, Bob, Eve, or Hannah; the phrases: never odd or even or Do geese see God? When reading phrases backwards, ignore punctuation, capitalization, and spaces.

Let's not forget about the countless words that are spelled and pronounced exactly the same way in both their singular and plural forms. English words like that include fish, deer, and species.

These are just a few of the remarkable properties of words. Somehow words in any language can even be arranged in a way to be very telling and at the same time reveal absolutely nothing at all. This inexplicable quality contributes to language and phrasing being taken out of context, manipulated, or simply misunderstood, especially if the right words are not carefully selected and applied.

To complicate that last notion, sometimes even with the most precise words things can still get lost in translation because, unfortunately, some of the most suitable words have infinite meanings. And, regrettably, that can still lead to confusion and misinterpretation.

So, in short, words and language are not foolproof. A prime example in the English language of an ambiguous word with a double meaning is incredible. Let's define it.

incredible (adjective): impossible to believe. ("an incredible tale of triumph and tragedy") incredible (adjective): amazingly good or beautiful; extraordinary. ("I was mesmerized by how incredible she looked")

Let's take a closer look at those definitions. The context in the first definition is the antonym or the opposite of the word credible.

The Book of Light

As adjectives, the difference between credible and incredible is that credible means “believable” or “plausible,” whereas incredible means “too implausible to be credible,” and thus not believable.

The in- prefix in incredible initially implied “not,” since the original definition of incredible was “too extraordinary to be believed,” and thus “not credible.” However, over time the meaning of incredible weakened and is now sometimes taken to mean “amazing,” as it appears in the second definition. This is similar to the weakening of the first definition to the meaning “unbelievable.”

Here’s a perfect example of how the usage of incredible and words like it can easily get muddled and misconstrued in a sentence:

The story of my best friend, Jonah killing an anaconda with his bare hands, is incredible.

You may interpret this sentence as meaning that what Jonah did is unbelievably amazing. But what I, as the writer, am actually trying to say is that Jonah killing an anaconda with his bare hands is a heap of impossible nonsense, and I don’t believe a word of it.

Is all this confusing enough for you? Good! Then, keep that in mind as we go through this journey together, because the Holy Bible is not only riddled with double-meaning words, but also words of antiquity whose meanings have changed.

As we start dissecting and unveiling the true meanings of some of the more bewildering and disguised words throughout the Holy Bible, you will see that not much has been lost in translation, as many seem to believe.

If anything, a wealth of edifying information has somehow been successfully camouflaged by evil perpetrators to go over the heads of even the most critical scholars and readers. The original meaning is all there, hidden in plain sight, and with a little divine intervention, I have been enlightened to see and unveil all of it and strip it down to the barebones naked truth for you.

The Book of Light

The question you should start asking yourself is why have such great lengths been taken to deceive us? My answer will blow the hat right off your head. You will discover the culprits yourself as we progress through these deceptions together.

Before we proceed, there is one extremely important word that is used loosely in our culture today that needs to be clarified because the true context of that word has been so badly misconstrued by pretty much everyone on the face of the planet. That little word plays a huge role in the grand scheme of deception. The word is myth.

I want you to pause right here for a few seconds to take a moment to mull over what the word myth means to you personally. How do you define it? This is important because after you come up with your definition, I want you to see how it contrasts with the actual definition.

Ready? Let's proceed.

myth (noun): a traditional story, especially one concerning the early history of a people or explaining some natural or social phenomenon, and typically involving supernatural beings or events. ("the heroes of Greek myth") myth (noun): a widely held but false belief or idea. ("It's a commonly believed myth that Santa Claus brings gifts to good children")

Please feel free to look up any definitions yourself as we move along, because the words in these definitions are not my own.

Depending on your generation, the context of the word myth may vary from one individual to another. If you attended grade school any time after the 1960s, the meaning you probably have for myth is the second one, above. How fascinating it is that the meaning of one word can be so convoluted.

This marks the early traces of the great deception that I will gladly start calling out from here on. It's funny how the first definition above referenced Greek myth in the example sentence for this definition. We'll get to that in a bit.

Let's take a closer look at the first definition, the main definition and true context of the word, especially in the sense that most people misuse it.

There are two very significant references in that definition that stand out. First, there is the line that reads, "A traditional story...concerning the early history of a people." This is a far cry from the second definition, which reads, "a widely held but false belief or idea." In fact, the second definition is the polar opposite of the first.

The second thing that stands out about the first definition is the last part, which reads, "typically involving supernatural beings or events."

So, in retrospect, it is safe to assume that the supernatural aspects associated with these traditional stories are not false; otherwise, they too would fall under the second definition.

Where in the world has this definition been hiding?!

A myth, according to the first definition, is an account of ancient people, our antecedents (look up the meaning of that word). It is time we all increased our vocabulary if we are to understand and attempt to uncover deception on our own. There is an actual cult in the world that worships knowledge. This is much different from studying knowledge. So, the members of that cult thrive on these kinds of manipulation.

I'm going to interpret this definition in my own words to share how I understand the meaning of myth. The definition of a myth, in this sense, is a time-honored story about a person or an event in history, typically containing supernatural elements associated with it.

The Book of Light

Take heed that nowhere in the definitions, mine or the formal one listed above, is it suggested that the word is fabricated, false, or bogus in notion, as is suggested by the second definition. This is where the pill starts getting harder to swallow, and the deception slowly begins to unfold. So, brace yourself. Let's just check out the word extraterrestrial.

extraterrestrial (noun): a hypothetical or fictional being from outer space, especially an intelligent one.

You see what I mean? The dictionary folks know better than anyone on this planet the importance of proper word selection and usage. I can't make this stuff up. Your intuition and moral compass are designed to warn you when you're being fed lies and deception. So, use them!

Let's also define the word legend while we're at it, so we can make a coalition between it and the word myth.

legend (noun): a traditional story sometimes popularly regarded as historical but unauthenticated. ("the legend of King Arthur") legend (noun): an extremely famous or notorious person, especially in a particular field. ("Martin Luther King, Jr., is a civil rights legend")

Again, if you're from the more recent generations, the meaning you're more familiar with is the second definition.

One word that sticks out from the first definition above is the word, unauthenticated. What does that even mean in an explanation? Don't get me wrong. I know it means not confirmed or validated. But what does that really mean in this day and age of readily accessible information?

Let me give you my understanding of the first definition for a legend. The definition of a legend is a time-honored story from the past that is believed to be true by many people, but cannot be validated.

The Book of Light

This definition, mine and the formal one listed above, is extremely vague and shrouded in mystery. In my life span, I have realized that whenever vagueness and uncertainty are present, there is typically a real story pending to be told.

Let's return to the word myth, since we now have a better grasp of that definition. Instead, let's call this particular myth "historic myth," to distinguish it from that other conflicting meaning of the word.

So, what would be considered historic myth in the sense of this newly realized definition? That would be Jewish and Christian mythology (in other words, every story in the Bible): Adam and Eve; Satan, the ancient serpent; Moses; Noah; and Jesus, to name a few.

And you know what else would constitute historic myth, based on the sense of that very same definition? Greco-Roman mythology. Oh, yes! That would include Zeus, Hera, Ares, Hades, Poseidon, and Aphrodite. They are all as real as Jesus walking the Earth and dying on the cross!

Acts 14:13 (The Book of the Gentiles)

And the priest of Zeus, whose temple was at the entrance to the city, brought oxen and garlands to the gates and wanted to offer sacrifice with the crowds.

Zeus's Roman counterpart, Jupiter, is used instead in the King James version of the Holy Bible.

Acts 14:13 (King James Version)

Then the priest of Jupiter, which was before their city, brought oxen and garlands unto the gates, and would have done sacrifice with the people.

The Book of Light

In fact, historic myth would include everything we have ever known to have the word mythology attached to it.

How is it possible that Zeus and the other Greek gods can be associated with historic myth, you ask? We will discuss that at length in Chapter 3. I devoted an entire chapter to just that subject matter because it is worthy of its own discussion.

We have to proceed in logical increments so you don't get too overwhelmed by information. I know it's a lot to take in all at once. So, I'll just plant a seed for now and let it marinate in your brain cells for a little bit before we dive back into it in Chapter 3.

Chapter 2: The Supernatural

One of the major highlights in the definition of historic myth is the involvement of the supernatural. So, let's define it.

supernatural (adjective): (of a manifestation or event or person) attributed to some force beyond scientific understanding or the laws of nature.

In other words, supernatural refers to magic.

The key phrase in the definition above is some force, which refers to the origin or the influence behind the conjured magic—typically something or someone. In this chapter, we are going to explore in depth what that something is.

First, however, let's also define the word magic.

magic (noun): the power of apparently influencing the course of events by using mysterious or supernatural forces.

In the definitions for both supernatural and magic, there is not a comprehensive explanation or an attempt to disclose who or what is the source behind the conjured force. For the word supernatural, there is the mention of “some force” being the source, and for the word magic the dictionary folks use mysterious or supernatural forces in a roundabout way. Again, this is very vague. So, there's a story pending here.

The Book of Light

It's so easy to be dismissive of the supernatural or of magic. Trust me, I truly get it. But notice again that nowhere in either definition is it suggested that the words themselves are conceptually fictional, hypothetical, or bogus. Keep that in mind, because the writers at the dictionary factory really understand the value and importance of words and phrasing.

These are more signs of deception slowly rearing its ugly head in our culture, and we haven't yet even dived into the contents of the Holy Bible.

Until you can wrap your mind around the supernatural concept of magic and really understand what it is and where it comes from, things like the Egyptian pyramids and other inexplicable phenomena in the world will always remain a mystery to you.

I want you to be aware that just because you don't believe something is real does not mean it does not exist all around you. There is a word that embodies and summarizes just that. It's called oblivious! That's one of the only nicer synonyms I can think of to refrain from using the actual word I want to use.

oblivious (adjective): not aware of or not concerned about what is happening around one.

Magic does not seek your approval or anyone else's. As a matter of fact, your disbelief in it is what allows some of its evil conjurers to successfully sustain their mischief and trickery. They rely on your skepticism because one cannot be deceived if one is already in the know.

The legendary Maya Angelou once said, "If you don't know where you've come from, you don't know where you're going." That saying always resonated with me ever since I first heard it, but it is only now that I truly understand why. We need to know our history in order to understand our present. It is only then that we can make wiser decisions for our future.

When I say our history, I mean the spiritual history of humanity or mankind as a whole,

The Book of Light

because there are dark times of despair looming from an unworldly enemy that poses a threat to all people on Earth. That looming threat is prophesied in the Holy Bible, and the Holy Bible is written about every single one of us.

Where does magic come from? Magic comes from GOD because GOD is the absolute magic. Magic is spiritually divine. GOD established Heaven with magic. GOD brought about angels with magic. The angels of GOD possess magic. GOD created the entire world with magic. HE said, "Let there be light," and there was, because the voice of GOD is magic. GOD created man with magic. GOD spoke to man through a burning bush via magic. GOD granted man the ability to wield HIS magic, through magic. Moses parted the Red Sea with magic. Jesus was conceived with magic. Jesus performed miracles with magic. Jesus died and was resurrected in three days with magic.

Magic has always been around since before time. You can't say you believe in GOD and not believe in magic. You can call it by whatever name you see fit: miracles, wonders, healings, signs, blessings, acts of GOD, or power of GOD. At the end of the day, it is still magic.

Magic even exists on a scientific level. Science may have discovered that GOD made fundamental building blocks of chemistry that we now know as atoms, but scientists still can't explain what keeps atoms' infinitesimal structure intact.

What keeps the components of a tiny atom contained and protected from coming apart or just disintegrating? That would be magic. What keeps our planet Earth from deviating out of its orbit and drifting into the blazing sun? That, too, would be magic. What keeps the intensity of the gravity pull balanced? That stability can easily go erratic and crush our bones flat, but it does not. Guess what? That's magic down to the very definition of the word.

The magic that created all things is the same magic that is sustaining them, and that is simply

The Book of Light

GOD. Magic is GOD, and GOD is unapologetically magic.

Although magic has its roots in GOD, it has been tremendously tainted by the sinister influences of evil perpetrators, whose main objective has always been to try to surpass GOD. The builders of the Tower of Babel are a good case in point.

Moving forward, I am going to be using three different forms of the word God throughout this book: GOD (the father), God (the son), and god (the evil perpetrator). I will also use LORD, Lord, and lord in the same way.

While GOD's magic remains holy and pure, the imitating, evil perpetrators tainted it and came up with a shoddy, diluted, substandard version that they use to invoke black magic, also called sorcery.

Let's define black magic, which I will juxtapose next to the word magic.

black magic (noun): magic involving the supposed invocation of evil spirits for evil purposes.

magic (noun): the power of apparently influencing the course of events by using mysterious or supernatural forces.

Pay close attention to the words of these two definitions when placed side by side, so you can see the relation between them for yourself. Again, these are not my definitions, they are ripped straight out of an actual dictionary. Feel free to cross-check the information on your own.

Black magic is clearly explained as invoking evil spirits for evil purposes. For magic, the dictionary folks suddenly want to recycle words like supernatural and then offset that by throwing in the word mysterious, but they know exactly what that driving supernatural force is. They just don't want to acknowledge it. It is clearly not of the evil spirit. So, what other spirit can it be?

The Book of Light

This notion of GOD's holy divine magic versus evil black magic is clearly depicted in the story of Moses in the Book of Exodus of the Holy Bible when he is first sent by God to approach the Egyptian Pharaoh in a failed request to let his people go.

Let's take a look at that passage.

Exodus 7:8-12 (The Book of the Jews)

Then the Lord said to Moses and Aaron, "When Pharaoh says to you, 'Prove yourselves by working a miracle,' then you shall say to Aaron, 'Take your staff and cast it down before Pharaoh, that it may become a serpent.'" So, Moses and Aaron went to Pharaoh and did just as The Lord commanded. Aaron cast down his staff before Pharaoh and his servants, and it became a serpent. Then Pharaoh summoned the wise men and the sorcerers, and they, the magicians of Egypt, also did the same by their secret arts. For each man cast down his staff, and they became serpents. But Aaron's staff swallowed up their staffs.

The Holy Spirit of GOD

GOD's magic is very distinguished and has a very exclusive and exotic name that will blow you away. Are you ready for it? Brace yourself! It's called "The Holy Spirit."

The very definition of the word magic is exactly what The Holy Spirit is.

Let's replace the word mysterious with The Holy Spirit in the definition for the word magic and see how it fits.

magic (noun): the power of apparently influencing the course of events by using The Holy Spirit or supernatural forces.

Let's do a side-by-side comparison of before and after.

magic (noun): the power of apparently influencing the course of events by using mysterious or supernatural forces.

The Book of Light

Forget everything you have heard or ever been taught about The Holy Spirit, because it is not a being or entity, and it is definitely not one-third of the Godhead. However, it is of GOD. Try to keep up with me, because the GOD titles can get quite confusing.

The main problem that arises with the concept of making The Holy Spirit a member of the Christian Holy Trinity—FATHER, Son, and Holy Spirit—is that it completely discredits and disregards GOD as a monotheist DEITY. There is only one overall GOD, not three!

Acts 10:38 (The Book of the Gentiles)

GOD anointed Jesus of Nazareth with The Holy Spirit and with power. He went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, for GOD was with Him.

Just for the record, anointings are typically done with a substance you can rub or smear, never with a living entity. In the highly divisive, noncanonical, apocryphal writings of a prophet named Enoch, GOD HIMSELF clearly states that HE alone is GOD.

You may or may not be familiar with The Book of Enoch just yet, but you will be by the end of the next chapter, because I am going to quote a very important passage from Enoch's Book that sums up the very nature of GOD in a nutshell.

Excerpt from the Second Book of Enoch

“There is no adviser and no successor to MY creation. I am Self-Eternal, not made by hands. MY Thought is without change. MY Wisdom is MY Adviser, and MY Deed is MY Word. MY Eyes look at all things. If I look at all things, then they stand still and shake with terror; but, if I should turn MY Face away, then all things would perish.”

This, my friends, is GOD!

The Book of Light

In all honesty, I completely understand how The Holy Spirit got misconstrued and confused as being a person. In the Book of John in the New Testament of the Holy Bible, Jesus, while talking to His disciples, personifies The Holy Spirit and calls it a helper, the Spirit of truth that He will ask the FATHER to send and be with them forever.

Let's check that passage out.

John 14:15-17 (The Book of the Gentiles)

“If you love Me, you will keep My commandments. And I will ask the Father, and HE will give you another Helper, to be with you forever, even the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it neither sees him nor knows him. You know him, for he dwells with you and will be in you.”

The sense of helper that is being used in this passage denotes a reinforcing physical enhancer, not an individual being or person who will bring aid and assistance.

This goes back to and supports an old saying that we've all heard at least once in our lifetime: “Our physical body is a Spiritual Temple.” In other words, our physical body is a vessel that is made to house The Holy Spirit when It comes as a divine helper. I am going to take the metaphor of the physical body one step further and call it a Mystical Temple. In the Book of John, Jesus refers to His body as a Temple. Let's take a look.

John 2:19-21 (The Book of the Gentiles)

Jesus answered them, “Destroy this Temple, and in three days I will raise it up.” The Jews then said, “It has taken forty-six years to build this Temple, and will you raise it up in three days?” But He was speaking about the Temple of His body.

The Apostle Paul also describes the bodies of the early Christians in Corinth as a Temple:

The Book of Light

1 Corinthians 3:16-17 (The Book of the Gentiles)

“Do you not know that you are God’s Temple and that God’s Spirit dwells in you? If anyone destroys God’s Temple, God will destroy him. For God’s Temple is holy, and you are that Temple.”

If you are not convinced that The Holy Spirit is the helper being referenced in this passage, then check out some lines from a later chapter in the Book of John:

John 14:26 (The Book of the Gentiles)

“But the Helper, The Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in My name, he will teach you all things and bring to your remembrance all that I have said to you.”

John did his best to explain The Holy Spirit. However, in the Book of Acts, the Apostle Paul beautifully sums up what The Holy Spirit does:

Acts 1:8 (The Book of the Gentiles)

“You will receive power when The Holy Spirit has come upon you, and you will be My witnesses in Jerusalem and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the end of the Earth.”

John redeemed himself a little bit with this passage:

John 15:26-27 (The Book of the Gentiles)

“When the Helper comes, whom I will send to you from the Father, the Spirit of truth, who proceeds from the Father, he will bear witness about Me. And you also will bear witness, because you have been with Me from the beginning.”

And bear witness the disciples did. After Jesus ascended to Heaven, The Holy Spirit came upon them as promised, by way of a phenomenal event that is commemorated as The Day of

The Book of Light

Pentecost (which Pentecostals have adapted as their doctrine).

On that day, The Holy Spirit descended from Heaven, like a gust of blowing wind, and took possession of each one of the remaining disciples. Immediately after, they all mystically began proclaiming the amazing accomplishments of GOD in several different foreign languages.

They were not just shouting out random, incomprehensible gibberish.

1 Corinthians 14:27-28 (The Book of the Gentiles)

If any speak in a tongue, let there be only two or at most three, and each in turn, and let someone interpret. But if there is no one to interpret, let each of them keep silent in church.

Visiting foreigners who were in Jerusalem on the day of Pentecost were stunned and left in awe after hearing their native languages spoken by these nonindigenous Jews:

Acts 2:1-13 (The Book of the Gentiles)

When the day of Pentecost arrived, they were all together in one place. And suddenly there came from Heaven a sound like a mighty rushing wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting. And divided tongues as of fire appeared to them and rested on each one of them. And they were all filled with The Holy Spirit and began to speak in other tongues as the Spirit gave them utterance.

Now there were dwelling in Jerusalem Jews, devout men from every nation under Heaven. And at this sound the multitude came together, and they were bewildered, because each one was hearing them speak in his own language. And they were amazed and astonished, saying, "Are not all these who are speaking Galileans? And how is it that we hear, each of us in his own native language? Parthians and Medes and Elamites and residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya belonging to Cyrene, and visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes, Cretans and Arabians—we hear them telling in our own tongues the mighty works of God." And all were amazed and perplexed, saying to one another, "What does this mean?"

The Book of Light

From that point on, The Holy Spirit granted the remaining disciples the same authority and power that Jesus had when He was alive teaching them. They performed miracles and healed people in the very same manner as Jesus before them.

Let's check out a couple of instances where Peter picks up the reins left by Jesus:

Acts 3:1-10 (The Book of the Gentiles)

Now Peter and John were going up to the temple at the hour of prayer, the ninth hour. And a man lame from birth was being carried, whom they laid daily at the gate of the temple that is called the Beautiful Gate to ask alms [i.e., money or food given to the poor] of those entering the temple. Seeing Peter and John about to go into the temple, he asked to receive alms. And Peter directed his gaze at him, as did John, and said, "Look at us." And he fixed his attention on them, expecting to receive something from them. But Peter said, "I have no silver and gold, but what I do have I give to you. In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, rise up and walk!" And he took him by the right hand and raised him up, and immediately his feet and ankles were made strong. And leaping up, he stood and began to walk, and entered the temple with them, walking and leaping and praising God. And all the people saw him walking and praising God, and recognized him as the one who sat at the Beautiful Gate of the temple, asking for alms. And they were filled with wonder and amazement at what had happened to him.

Then there's another passage from the Book of Acts that refers indirectly to The Holy Spirit:

Acts 5:14-16 (The Book of the Gentiles)

And more than ever believers were added to The Lord, multitudes of both men and women, so that they even carried out the sick into the streets and laid them on cots and mats, that as Peter came by at least his shadow might fall on some of them. The people also gathered from the towns around Jerusalem, bringing the sick and those afflicted with unclean spirits, and they were all healed.

So, then, what exactly is The Holy Spirit? The Holy Spirit is a Spirit that is Holy. It's a portion of GOD's own living spirit broken off and extended to HIS living creation, as a physical enhancer.

Let's take a closer look at the earlier passage from John because it is very telling:

John 15:26-27 (The Book of the Gentiles)

“When the Helper comes, whom I will send to you from the Father, the Spirit of truth, who proceeds from the Father, will bear witness about Me. And you also will bear witness, because you have been with Me from the beginning.”

Notice that the passage stresses how the Spirit will come from the FATHER, who is GOD.

This is actually literal, not figurative.

Let's define Holy Spirit and see how the dictionary folks handle that one.

Holy Spirit (noun): (in Christianity) the third person of the Trinity; God as spiritually active in the world.

Do you see that? GOD, the FATHER, spiritually active in the world is exactly what the word magic is!

Notice how the dictionary folks have cleverly tucked the actual meaning of the phrase Holy Spirit behind that misleading Trinity concept. They should have distinguished it as a standalone number two definition, but they didn't. The Spirit of GOD is the mysterious and supernatural force that the definition of magic does not acknowledge:

magic (noun): the power of apparently influencing the course of events by using mysterious or supernatural forces.

The Holy Spirit is a Magical Force, not a person. It is exactly what a Jedi Force Power is.

If you are not familiar with the Force concept, then let me explain it and demonstrate how it parallels The Holy Spirit.

The Book of Light

In the 1977 movie Star Wars, the Force (The Spirit of GOD) is what empowers a Jedi (man), a member of the mystical knightly order (GOD's kingdom). The Force was created by life and therefore resides in all lifeforms. The living Force was made up of all living things in the galaxy. The energy it created fed into the Cosmic Force (GOD). The Cosmic Force was how both Jedi and Sith (fallen angels) claimed to know the will of the Force, which communicated to them through visions, dreams, or meditation. The Jedi uses the light side of the Force (The Holy Spirit) and the Sith uses the dark side of the Force (Black Magic/Sorcery).

George Lucas, the creator of Star Wars, must have been well acquainted with the magical concept of The Holy Spirit, because that's exactly what he demonstrated so proficiently in his blockbuster films.

Let's take a look at some of the ways the Holy Bible demonstrates The Holy Spirit at work as a Magical Force. A really good example occurs when the angel Gabriel appears to Mary to inform her that she will undergo a virgin conception through the magical power of The Holy Spirit and have a son.

Luke 1:35 (The Book of the Gentiles)

*And Mary said to the angel, "How will this be, since I am a virgin?"
And the angel answered her, "The Holy Spirit will come upon you, and the power of the Most-High will overshadow you; therefore, the child to be born will be called holy—the Son of GOD."*

However, the best example of The Holy Spirit conceptualized as a mystical Force appears in the story of Samson, the physically strongest human character in the Old Testament of the Holy Bible. He is sent by GOD as the twelfth Judge of Israel to defeat the wicked Philistines, who at that time had ruled over the people of Israel for forty-two years.

The Book of Light

There is a big misconception that Samson's strength derived from his hair. It did not! His might originated from The Holy Spirit, which the Old Testament clarifies several times.

Samson was deemed a Nazirite by GOD from conception. As a Nazirite, he was not allowed to cut, comb, or groom his hair. This meant that Samson actually sported dreadlocks, seven of them to be precise. It would appear that Nazirites were the original Rastafarians.

This is very subtly implied in the Book of Judges in the Old Testament. Let's take a look at the passage where Samson taunts Delilah about fastening his dreadlocks.

Judges 16:13-14 (The Book of the Jews)

Then Delilah said to Samson, "Until now you have mocked me and told me lies. Tell me how you might be bound." And he said to her, "If you weave the seven locks of my head with the web and fasten it tight with the pin, then I shall become weak and be like any other man." So, while he slept, Delilah took the seven locks of his head and wove them into the web. And she made them tight with the pin and said to him, "The Philistines are upon you, Samson!" But he awoke from his sleep and pulled away the pin, the loom, and the web.

Samson was also prohibited from drinking alcoholic beverages, eating meats and foods considered unclean according to the Nazirite laws, or even handling dead bodies. Since he was a Nazirite, indulgence in any one of those forbidden acts would have caused him to lose his power.

Let's check out what the Book of Numbers in the Holy Bible says about Nazirites:

Numbers 6:2-7 (The Book of the Jews)

When either a man or a woman makes a special vow, the vow of a Nazirite, to separate himself to The Lord, he shall separate himself from wine and strong drink. He shall drink no vinegar made from wine or strong drink and shall not drink any juice of grapes or eat grapes, fresh or dried. All the days of his separation he shall eat nothing that is produced by the grapevine, not even the seeds or the skins.

All the days of his vow of separation, no razor shall touch his head. Until the time is completed for which he separates himself to The Lord, he shall be holy. He shall let the locks of hair of his head grow long. All the days that he separates himself to The Lord he shall not go near a dead body. Not even for his father or for his mother, for brother or sister, if they die, shall he make himself unclean, because his separation to God is on his head. All the days of his separation he is holy to The Lord.

The Book of Light

Samson was not the only Nazirite in the land with long hair. So, the strength could not be from his hair alone, especially without any other Nazirite showing signs of being equally powerful.

Samson's origin story is an interesting one in the Old Testament. Let's take a look at the actual Biblical passage that shows a very special angel coming to Samson's parents prior to his birth:

Judges 13:3-5 (The Book of the Jews)

And the angel of The LORD appeared to the woman and said to her, "Behold, you are barren and have not borne children, but you shall conceive and bear a son. Therefore, be careful and drink no wine or strong drink, and eat nothing unclean, for behold, you shall conceive and bear a son. No razor shall come upon his head, for the child shall be a Nazirite to God from the womb, and he shall begin to save Israel from the hand of the Philistines."

Notice how this heavenly messenger of The LORD is referred to here as "the angel," rather than "an angel." This may seem insignificant, but I assure you, it is not. The word the is a determiner used to reference a person, place, or thing that is unique. It is the difference between saying the child and a child. Let's define the word determiner in grammar:

determiner (grammar): a modifying word that determines the kind of reference a noun or noun group has, for example a, the, every.

Using the three examples from the definition above, one can say, "A horse has won tonight,"

The Book of Light

or “The horse has won tonight,” or “Every horse has won tonight.” You see how the word the makes it very specific? Simply put, in English, a determiner is a word that introduces a noun. It always comes before the noun, not after, and it also comes before any other adjectives used to describe the noun. For example, the angel or the glorious angel.

In the Book of Matthew of the Holy Bible, an angel appears to Joseph after Jesus is born, in the very same manner as in the Judges passage above, to warn him that King Herod intends to kill baby Jesus. So, this commissioned angel instructs Joseph to take his wife, Mary, and the child to go hide in Egypt.

Let’s take a look at how that particular angel is depicted in the Biblical passage:

Matthew 1:13-15 (The Book of the Gentiles)

Now when they had departed, behold, an angel of The Lord appeared to Joseph in a dream and said, “Rise, take the child and his mother, and flee to Egypt, and remain there until I tell you, for Herod is about to search for the child, to destroy him.” And he rose and took the child and his mother by night and departed to Egypt and remained there until the death of Herod.

The determiner an in this passage is the form of the word a before an initial vowel sound, denoting that this angel is one of many, and not unique. For those who want to argue that the phrasing may just be different between scripture written in the Old Testament and the New Testament, let’s check out another passage from the Old Testament:

Exodus 33:2 (The Book of the Jews)

I will send an angel before you, and I will drive out the Canaanites, the Amorites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites.

You see what I mean? The phrasing an angel as opposed to the angel implies a nonspecific

The Book of Light

angel, unlike the phrase used in the Book of Revelation:

Revelation 9:11 (The Book of the Gentiles)

They have as King over them the angel of the bottomless pit. His name in Hebrew is Abaddon, and in Greek he is called Apollyon.

The question now becomes who is being specified as the angel of The LORD in the Samson story in The Book of Judges? And why does that angel have no name? We'll get into that later on. For the moment, let's proceed with the story of Samson.

In the end, Samson brings about his demise by divulging to Delilah that his strength is in his hair.

Judges 16:15-17 (The Book of the Jews)

And she said to him, "How can you say, 'I love you,' when your heart is not with me? You have mocked me these three times, and you have not told me where your great strength lies." And when she pressed him hard with her words day after day, and urged him, his soul was vexed to death. And he told her all his heart, and said to her, "A razor has never come upon my head, for I have been a Nazirite to God from my mother's womb. If my head is shaved, then my strength will leave me, and I shall become weak and be like any other man."

In all honesty, Samson also could have said to Delilah, "If you intoxicate me with wine, then my strength will leave me, and I shall become weak and be like any other man." But instead, he chose to disclose cutting his hair. Perhaps the sight or smell of the grapevine beverage made him nauseous—we will never know. Note that the holy men and women living the Nazirite lifestyle were never obligated to abstain from sex.

As I stated earlier, Samson's might originate from The Holy Spirit of GOD, and I'm going to demonstrate that so you can see it for yourself.

The Book of Light

When Samson came of age, The Holy Spirit descended upon him and, from then on, he became the great force he was known as—and not solely because of his hair.

Let's check out some passages supporting that.

Samson Coming of Age

Judges 13:24-26 (The Book of the Jews)

And the woman bore a son and called his name Samson. And the young man grew, and The LORD blessed him. And the Spirit of The LORD [i.e., the Holy Spirit] began to stir him in Mahaneh-dan, between Zorah and Eshtaol.

Samson Rips Apart a Lion

Judges 14:5-6 (The Book of the Jews)

Then Samson went down with his father and mother to Timnah, and they came to the vineyards of Timnah. And behold, a young lion came toward him roaring. Then the Spirit of The LORD [i.e., the Holy Spirit] rushed upon him, and although he had nothing in his hand, he tore the lion in pieces as one tears a young goat. But he did not tell his father or his mother what he had done.

Samson Defeats Thirty Men Single-Handedly

Judges 14:19 (The Book of the Jews)

And the Spirit of The LORD [i.e., the Holy Spirit] rushed upon him, and he went down to Ashkelon and struck down thirty men of the town and took their spoil and gave the garments to those who had told the riddle. In hot anger he went back to his father's house.

Samson Breaks Free Out of Ropes

Judges 15:12-14 (The Book of the Jews)

And they said to him, "We have come down to bind you, that we may give you into the hands of the Philistines." And Samson said to them, "Swear to me that you will not attack me yourselves." They said to him, "No; we will only bind you and give you into their hands. We will surely not kill you.” So, they bound him with two new ropes and brought him up from the rock. When he came to Lehi, the Philistines came shouting to meet him. Then the Spirit of The LORD [i.e., the Holy Spirit] rushed upon him, and the ropes that were on his arms became as flax that has caught fire, and his bonds melted off his hands.

The Book of Light

Just to reassure you that those passages are in fact referring to the Holy Spirit, I am going to prompt you with how the Spirit was also used in the story of the Day of Pentecost.

Acts 2:4 (The Book of the Gentiles)

And they were all filled with The Holy Spirit and began to speak in other tongues as the Spirit gave them utterance.

At the end of his life, Samson was still able to demonstrate great power through The Holy Spirit of GOD because his last amazing feat was performed without his hair or his eyes, for his enemies had victoriously stripped him of both.

Judges 16:23-31 (The Book of the Jews)

Then Samson called to The Lord and said, “O Lord God, please remember me and please strengthen me only this once, O God, that I may be avenged on the Philistines for my two eyes.” And Samson grasped the two middle pillars on which the house rested, and he leaned his weight against them, his right hand on the one and his left hand on the other. And Samson said, “Let me die with the Philistines.” Then he bowed with all his strength, and the house fell upon the lords and upon all the people who were in it.

As I mentioned before, the human body is a Mystical Temple designed perfectly by God to house The Holy Spirit of GOD when it fills that temple as a reinforcing helper.

When filled with The Holy Spirit, any one of us, at any given time, is completely capable of performing any one of those amazing feats accomplished by Samson. However, to be a true recipient of this special divine gift, one must be deemed by GOD as truly worthy.

The Book of Light

Reinforcement by the Holy Spirit

When one is filled with The Holy Spirit of GOD, one not only becomes strong and powerful, but also virtually indestructible. We will be exploring some amazing Biblical accounts of mystical resiliency, but first let us explore two important Biblical figures who are not talked about much in the Holy Bible, but who contributed greatly to it: John of Patmos and the Apostle Paul.

Let's start with John.

John of Patmos

John of Patmos, who was one of the twelve disciples of Jesus, was also called "Saint John," "John the Divine," "John the Revelator," and most commonly "John the Apostle." He became renowned as the author of the apocalyptic Book of Revelation, the final book of the New Testament.

As a result of anti-Christian persecution in Rome in the late first century, during the reign of Emperor Domitian, prophecy with political implications, as well as magic and astrology, were offenses punishable by death, and it so happened that that's exactly the kind of prophecy John was engaged in at the time. He was considered a threat to the Roman political order, so he was condemned to death.

Before the witnessing eyes of a large audience at the Colosseum, John was submerged into a pot of boiling oil, but, through the magic of the Holy Spirit, he miraculously sustained no injuries. The Force was strong within him.

The Book of Light

When the audience witnessed this phenomenon, everyone in the theater converted to Christianity, and so John was exiled by the Roman authorities to a small, rocky, and barren Greek prison island called Patmos, where many criminals of Rome were sent to serve out their terms in harsh conditions.

Revelation 1:9 (The Book of the Gentiles)

I, John, your brother and partner in the tribulation and the Kingdom and the patient endurance that are in Jesus, was on the island called Patmos on account of the word of God and the testimony of Jesus.

It was during his time of banishment at Patmos that John began having mystical visions that prompted him to start writing the Book of Revelation.

The Apostle Paul

The Apostle Paul, also known as “Saint Paul” or “Saul of Tarsus (after the city in which he was born in modern-day Turkey), was quite a fascinating figure, because not only was he not around when Jesus was teaching and performing miracles, but he was in fact one of the many Jesus haters who persecuted the remaining disciples after Jesus died. He tells his own story.

1 Corinthians 15:8-10 (The Book of the Gentiles)

Last of all, as to one untimely born, He [i.e., Jesus] appeared also to me. For I am the least of the apostles, unworthy to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God. But by the grace of God I am what I am, and His grace toward me was not in vain.

According to Paul himself, who wrote fourteen of the twenty-seven Books in the New Testament, while he was traveling on the road from Jerusalem to Damascus, the resurrected apparition of Jesus appeared to him as a bright light from the spirit realm. Paul immediately went blind for three days after that encounter.

The Book of Light

Acts 9:3-9 (The Book of the Gentiles)

Now as he went on his way, he approached Damascus, and suddenly a light from Heaven shone around him. And falling to the ground, he heard a voice saying to him, "Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting me?" And he said, "Who are you, Lord?" And He said, "I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting. But rise and enter the city, and you will be told what you are to do." The men who were traveling with him stood speechless, hearing the voice but seeing no one. Saul rose from the ground, and although his eyes were opened, he saw nothing. So, they led him by the hand and brought him into Damascus. And for three days he was without sight, and neither ate nor drank.

On the third day, Ananias of Damascus, one of Jesus' remaining disciples, came to Paul and disclosed to him that Jesus sent him to restore his sight.

Acts 9:10-17 (The Book of the Gentiles)

Now there was a disciple at Damascus named Ananias. The Lord said to him in a vision, "Ananias." And he said, "Here I am, Lord." And The Lord said to him, "Rise and go to the street called Straight, and at the house of Judas look for a man of Tarsus named Saul, for behold, he is praying, and he has seen in a vision a man named Ananias come in and lay his hands on him so that he might regain his sight." But Ananias answered, "Lord, I have heard from many about this man, how much evil he has done to your saints at Jerusalem. And here he has authority from the chief priests to bind all who call on your name." But The Lord said to him, "Go, for he is a chosen instrument of Mine to carry My name before the Gentiles and kings and the children of Israel. For I will show him how much he must suffer for the sake of My name." So, Ananias departed and entered the house. And laying his hands on him he said, "Brother Saul, The Lord Jesus who appeared to you on the road by which you came has sent me so that you may regain your sight and be filled with The Holy Spirit."

From then on, The Holy Spirit converted Paul into a new man. He began to preach and uphold that Jesus of Nazareth is indeed the Jewish Messiah and the Son of GOD. Under the influence of the Holy Spirit of GOD, he performed countless miracles, healed the sick, and cast out demons, all in the name of Jesus of Nazareth. Paul made it very clear that the Gospel he received and preached was not from man, but directly by the revelation of Jesus Christ.

Acts 9:26-27 (The Book of the Gentiles)

And when he [i.e., the Apostle Paul] had come to Jerusalem, he attempted to join the disciples. And they were all afraid of him, for they did not believe that he was a disciple. But Barnabas took him and brought him to the apostles and declared to them how on the road he had seen The Lord, who spoke to him.

The Apostle Paul taught about the life and works of Jesus Christ and that the Covenant that God initially made with Abraham excluded the Gentiles, so a New Covenant established through Jesus' death and resurrection united Gentiles and Jews as the people of GOD. You can see how that would conflict with the Jews of Judaism, who uphold the Covenant that GOD made with Abraham as the final law. Paul is 100 percent responsible for bringing the Gospel to the Gentiles.

Now let's discuss an interesting Old Testament prophet named Daniel.

Daniel

After the Kingdom of Babylon attacked Jerusalem, it took many ancient Israelites into captivity. The Israelites who showed signs of extraordinary abilities were given special treatment. One of those exceptional Israelites was a teenager named Daniel, who was proficient in interpreting dreams.

Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon at the time, had a disturbing dream that shook and rattled him to the core, and he would not rest until he learned its meaning. So, he summoned all the local magi, sages, magicians, sorcerers, and spellcasters to explain the meaning of the dream,

The Book of Light

and executed them if they failed. One after another, they failed miserably, until Daniel came along and accomplished the impossible task of interpreting the king's dream through insight inspired by God's Holy Spirit.

Daniel 2:1-16 (The Book of the Jews)

In the second year of the reign of Nebuchadnezzar, Nebuchadnezzar had dreams; his spirit was troubled, and his sleep left him.

Then the king commanded that the magicians, the enchanters, the sorcerers, and the Chaldeans be summoned to tell the king his dreams. So, they came in and stood before the king.

And the king said to them, "I had a dream, and my spirit is troubled to know the dream."

Then the Chaldeans said to the king in Aramaic, "O king, live forever! Tell your servants the dream, and we will show the interpretation."

The king answered and said to the Chaldeans, "The word from me is firm: if you do not make known to me the dream and its interpretation, you shall be torn limb from limb, and your houses shall be laid in ruins. But if you show the dream and its interpretation, you shall receive from me gifts and rewards and great honor. Therefore, show me the dream and its interpretation."

They answered a second time and said, "Let the king tell his servants the dream, and we will show its interpretation."

The king answered and said, "I know with certainty that you are trying to gain time, because you see that the word from me is firm—if you do not make the dream known to me, there is but one sentence for you. You have agreed to speak lying and corrupt words before me till the times change. Therefore, tell me the dream, and I shall know that you can show me its interpretation."

The Chaldeans answered the king and said, "There is not a man on earth who can meet the king's demand, for no great and powerful king has asked such a thing of any magician or enchanter or Chaldean. The thing that the king asks is difficult, and no one can show it to the king except the gods, whose dwelling is not with flesh."

Because of this the king was angry and very furious, and commanded that all the wise men of Babylon be destroyed.

So, the decree went out, and the wise men were about to be killed; and they sought Daniel and his companions, to kill them.

Then Daniel replied with prudence and discretion to Arioch, the captain of the king's guard, who had gone out to kill the wise men of Babylon.

He declared to Arioch, the king's captain, "Why is the decree of the king so urgent?" Then Arioch made the matter known to Daniel.

And Daniel went in and requested the king to appoint him a time, that he might show the interpretation to the king.

The Book of Light

And so, Daniel successfully interpreted the dream, and King Nebuchadnezzar honored and rewarded him beyond his imagination. I will expound more on the actual dream in Chapter 12.

Daniel 2:48-49 (The Book of the Jews)

Then the king gave Daniel high honors and many great gifts, and made him ruler over the whole province of Babylon and chief prefect over all the wise men of Babylon. Daniel made a request of the king, and he appointed Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego over the affairs of the province of Babylon. But Daniel remained at the king's court.

Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego

King Nebuchadnezzar erected a large golden idol in his court and commanded that every man should fall to his knees and worship the idol at the sound of every kind of musical instrument. This didn't go so well when three of Daniel's personal officials—Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego—refused to take the knee.

Let's check out that passage.

Daniel 3:1-30 (The Book of the Jews)

King Nebuchadnezzar made an image of gold, whose height was sixty cubits and its breadth six cubits. He set it up on the plain of Dura, in the province of Babylon.

Then King Nebuchadnezzar sent to gather the satraps, the prefects, and the governors, the counselors, the treasurers, the justices, the magistrates, and all the officials of the provinces to come to the dedication of the image that King Nebuchadnezzar had set up.

Then the satraps, the prefects, and the governors, the counselors, the treasurers, the justices, the magistrates, and all the officials of the provinces gathered for the dedication of the image that King Nebuchadnezzar had set up. And they stood before the image that Nebuchadnezzar had set up.

And the herald proclaimed aloud, "You are commanded, O peoples, nations, and languages, that when you hear the sound of the horn, pipe, lyre, trigon, harp,

The Book of Light

bagpipe, and every kind of music, you are to fall down and worship the golden image that King Nebuchadnezzar has set up.

And whoever does not fall down and worship shall immediately be cast into a burning fiery furnace.”

Therefore, as soon as all the peoples heard the sound of the horn, pipe, lyre, trigon, harp, bagpipe, and every kind of music, all the peoples, nations, and languages fell down and worshiped the golden image that King Nebuchadnezzar had set up.

Therefore, at that time certain Chaldeans came forward and maliciously accused the Jews.

They declared to King Nebuchadnezzar, “O king, live forever! You, O king, have made a decree, that every man who hears the sound of the horn, pipe, lyre, trigon, harp, bagpipe, and every kind of music, shall fall down and worship the golden image. And whoever does not fall down and worship shall be cast into a burning fiery furnace. There are certain Jews whom you have appointed over the affairs of the province of Babylon: Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. These men, O king, pay no attention to you; they do not serve your gods or worship the golden image that you have set up.”

Then Nebuchadnezzar in furious rage commanded that Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego be brought. So, they brought these men before the king.

Nebuchadnezzar answered and said to them, “Is it true, O Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, that you do not serve my gods or worship the golden image that I have set up? Now if you are ready when you hear the sound of the horn, pipe, lyre, trigon, harp, bagpipe, and every kind of music, to fall down and worship the image that I have made, well and good. But if you do not worship, you shall immediately be cast into a burning fiery furnace. And who is the god who will deliver you out of my hands?”

Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego answered and said to the king, “O Nebuchadnezzar, we have no need to answer you in this matter. If this be so, our God whom we serve is able to deliver us from the burning fiery furnace, and he will deliver us out of your hand, O king. But if not, be it known to you, O king, that we will not serve your gods or worship the golden image that you have set up.”

Then Nebuchadnezzar was filled with fury, and the expression of his face was changed against Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego.

He ordered the furnace heated seven times more than it was usually heated and he ordered some of the mighty men of his army to bind Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, and to cast them into the burning fiery furnace.

Then these men were bound in their cloaks, their tunics, their hats, and their other garments, and they were thrown into the burning fiery furnace.

Because the king’s order was urgent and the furnace overheated, the flame of the fire killed those men who took up Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego.

And these three men, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, fell bound into the burning fiery furnace.

Then King Nebuchadnezzar was astonished and rose up in haste. He declared to his counselors, “Did we not cast three men bound into the fire?” They

The Book of Light

answered and said to the king, "True, O king."

He answered and said, "But I see four men unbound, walking in the midst of the fire, and they are not hurt; and the appearance of the fourth is like a son of the gods."

Then Nebuchadnezzar came near to the door of the burning fiery furnace; he declared, "Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, servants of the Most-High GOD, come out, and come here!" Then Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego came out from the fire.

And the satraps, the prefects, the governors, and the king's counselors gathered together and saw that the fire had not had any power over the bodies of those men. The hair of their heads was not singed, their cloaks were not harmed, and no smell of fire had come upon them.

Nebuchadnezzar answered and said, "Blessed be the GOD of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, who has sent HIS angel [here is the angel again] and delivered his servants, who trusted in him, and set aside the king's command, and yielded up their bodies rather than serve and worship any god except their own God.

Therefore, I make a decree: Any people, nation, or language that speaks anything against the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego shall be torn limb from limb, and their houses laid in ruins, for there is no other god who is able to rescue in this way."

Then the king promoted Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego in the province of Babylon.

Daniel and the Lion's Den

Under the rule of a new king, King Darius, Daniel became exalted above all the other high officials in the court. The new king even planned on setting Daniel over the whole kingdom. So, the other jealous and hating high officials conspired to find a ground for complaint against Daniel with regard to the laws of the kingdom, but they couldn't find anything. Eventually, they caught Daniel on his knees praying to GOD, and that gave them the ammunition they needed.

Let's check out that passage.

Daniel 6:10-24 (The Book of the Jews)

When Daniel knew that the document had been signed, he went to his house where he had windows in his upper chamber open toward Jerusalem. He got down on his knees three times a day and prayed and gave thanks before his GOD,

The Book of Light

as he had done previously. Then these men came by agreement and found Daniel making petition and plea before his GOD. Then they came near and said before the king, concerning the injunction, "O king! Did you not sign an injunction, that anyone who makes petition to any god or man within thirty days except to you, O king, shall be cast into the den of lions?" The king answered and said, "The thing stands fast, according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which cannot be revoked." Then they answered and said before the king, "Daniel, who is one of the exiles from Judah, pays no attention to you, O king, or the injunction you have signed, but makes his petition three times a day."

Then the king, when he heard these words, was much distressed and set his mind to deliver Daniel. And he labored till the sun went down to rescue him. Then these men came by agreement to the king and said to the king, "Know, O king, that it is a law of the Medes and Persians that no injunction or ordinance that the king establishes can be changed." Then the king commanded, and Daniel was brought and cast into the den of lions. The king declared to Daniel, "May your GOD, whom you serve continually, deliver you!" And a stone was brought and laid on the mouth of the den, and the king sealed it with his own signet and with the signet of his lords, that nothing might be changed concerning Daniel. Then the king went to his palace and spent the night fasting; no diversions were brought to him, and sleep fled from him.

Then, at break of day, the king arose and went in haste to the den of lions. As he came near to the den where Daniel was, he cried out in a tone of anguish. The king declared to Daniel, "O Daniel, servant of the living GOD, has your GOD, whom you serve continually, been able to deliver you from the lions?" Then Daniel said to the king, "O king, live forever! My GOD sent HIS angel and shut the lions' mouths, and they have not harmed me, because I was found blameless before him; and also, before you, O king, I have done no harm." Then the king was exceedingly glad, and commanded that Daniel be taken up out of the den. So, Daniel was taken up out of the den, and no kind of harm was found on him, because he had trusted in his GOD. And the king commanded, and those men who had maliciously accused Daniel were brought and cast into the den of lions—they, their children, and their wives. And before they reached the bottom of the den, the lions overpowered them and broke all their bones in pieces.

Notice the continuous use of the angel of The LORD in these accounts, and there's still no mention of a name.

The Holy Spirit even grants talents, skills, and intelligence. Let's check out how that is illustrated in the Book of Exodus.

The Book of Light

Exodus 31:2-5 (The Book of the Jews)

“I have called by name Bezalel the son of Uri, son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah, and I have filled him with the Spirit of GOD, with ability and intelligence, with knowledge and all craftsmanship, to devise artistic designs, to work in gold, silver, and bronze, in cutting stones for setting, and in carving wood, to work in every craft.”

The only form of supernatural magic that pertains to GOD is called The Holy Spirit. Any of the other countless variations of magic in existence is a derivative of black magic. If it has an actual name, then it is not of GOD, period! That includes: Divine magic, Holy Magic, Mage magic, Arcane magic, Elemental magic, Warlock magic, Alchemy, and even White magic.

white magic (noun): magic used only for good purposes.

White magic, no matter how “good” it claims to be, is still a form of paganism that is not directly of GOD.

The one major qualm about claiming to be spiritual over religious is that opening up oneself to the spirit world can leave one vulnerable to evil spirits, because Satan is spiritual all day long! One must be extremely conscious of which kind of spirit one is invoking or allowing into one’s midst, because opening oneself to transcendental meditators claiming to do “good” in the name of the spirits can leave one wide open to attacks from evil spirits, especially if the said meditators are not properly inclined spiritually. This particularly pertains to the use of witchdoctors, spiritual healers, and shamans.

The Holy Spirit of GOD is readily capable of giving its recipient the ability to heal and do all things good. That is how even Jesus was able to perform all of His earthly miracles. He was anointed with The Holy Spirit of GOD on the day of his baptism at the hands of John the Baptist.

This is supported in the Book of Acts of the Holy Bible.

The Book of Light

Acts 10:37-39 (The Book of the Gentiles)

You yourselves know what happened throughout all Judea, beginning from Galilee after the baptism that John proclaimed: how GOD anointed Jesus of Nazareth with The Holy Spirit and with power. He went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, for GOD was with Him. And we are witnesses of all that He did both in the country of the Jews and in Jerusalem.

Let's take a look at the Baptism of Jesus, who comes to John the Baptist to be baptized.

Matthew 3:13-16 (The Book of the Gentiles)

Then Jesus came from Galilee to the Jordan to John, to be baptized by him. John would have prevented Him, saying, "I need to be baptized by You, and do You come to me?" But Jesus answered him, "Let it be so now, for thus it is fitting for us to fulfill all righteousness." Then he consented. And when Jesus was baptized, immediately He went up from the water, and behold, the Heavens were opened to Him, and He saw the Spirit of GOD descending like a dove and coming to rest on Him.

Matthew's interpretation of The Holy Spirit is probably the best interpretation yet. The Holy Spirit is The Spirit of GOD, the FATHER.

GOD's supernatural Spirit is capable of breaking off HIS distinctive Being to become its own freestanding, living, enchanted presence that can take possession of the human body as a physical enhancer. After It accomplishes Its set task, it reunifies Itself back with GOD or not. This is why Jesus referred to it as a He in the Book of John.

Let's take a quick look at a passage from the Book of Revelation of the Holy Bible, where John of Patmos describes being brought before the throne of GOD in spirit by an angel, and he describes all the other present entities surrounding GOD's throne.

The Book of Light

Revelation 4:4-5 (The Book of the Gentiles)

Around the Throne were twenty-four thrones, and seated on the thrones were twenty-four elders, clothed in white garments, with golden crowns on their heads. From the Throne came flashes of lightning, and rumblings and peals of thunder, and before the Throne were burning seven torches of fire, which are the seven spirits of God.

As I said, Magic is GOD, and GOD is unapologetically magic.

Let's check out the passage where GOD first calls to the prophet Ezekiel in the Book of Ezekiel.

Ezekiel 2:1-2 (The Book of the Jews)

And HE said to me, "son of man, stand on your feet, and I will speak with you." And as HE spoke to me, the Spirit entered into me and set me on my feet, and I heard HIM speaking to me.

As I previously stated, the human body is a Mystical Temple designed to become completely filled and enhanced by the supernatural powers of GOD's own Holy Spirit, a pure and clean spirit that is holy.

1 Corinthians 3:16-17 (The Book of the Gentiles)

Do you not know that you are God's Temple and that God's Spirit dwells in you? If anyone destroys God's Temple, God will destroy him. For God's Temple is holy, and you are that Temple.

In the same way that this mystical and holy Temple of ours can be filled with The Holy Spirit, it is equally susceptible to possession by an evil spirit, an impure and unclean spirit that is not holy. It happens daily all around the world. We see it in movies like the 1973 film The Exorcist, we see it on TV, and we read about it in magazines and books, including the Holy

The Book of Light

Bible.

Possession (noun): the state of being controlled by a demon or spirit. (“they prayed for protection against demonic possession”)

Let’s take a look at one of the more astonishing exorcisms performed by Jesus during His lifetime on Earth—when He encounters the man called Legion who is possessed by a multitude of evil spirits. You will see that even when possessed by evil spirits, one’s strength is significantly enhanced. So, this demonstrates that possession by GOD’s Holy Spirit is an even greater enhancer.

Mark 5:1-20 (The Book of the Gentiles)

They came to the other side of the sea, to the country of the Gerasenes. And when Jesus had stepped out of the boat, immediately there met Him out of the tombs a man with an unclean spirit. He lived among the tombs. And no one could bind him anymore, not even with a chain, for he had often been bound with shackles and chains, but he wrenched the chains apart, and he broke the shackles in pieces. No one had the strength to subdue him. Night and day among the tombs and on the mountains he was always crying out and cutting himself with stones.

And when he saw Jesus from afar, he ran and fell down before Him. And crying out with a loud voice, he said, “What have you to do with me, Jesus, Son of the Most-High GOD? I adjure you by GOD, do not torment me.” For He was saying to him, “Come out of the man, you unclean spirit!”

And Jesus asked him, “What is your name?” He replied, “My name is Legion, for we are many.” And he begged Him earnestly not to send them out of the country. Now a great herd of pigs was feeding there on the hillside, and they begged Him, saying, “Send us to the pigs; let us enter them.” So, He gave them permission. And the unclean spirits came out and entered the pigs; and the herd, numbering about two thousand, rushed down the steep bank into the Sea and drowned in the Sea. The herdsmen fled and told it in the city and in the country. And people came to see what it was that had happened. And they came to Jesus and saw the demon-possessed man, the one who had had the legion, sitting there, clothed and in his right mind, and they were afraid. And those who had seen it described to them what had happened to the demon-possessed man and to the pigs. And they began to beg Jesus to depart from their region. As He was getting into the boat, the man who had been possessed with demons begged Him that he might be with Him. And He did not permit him but said to him, “Go home to your friends and tell them how much The Lord has done for you, and how he has had mercy on you.” And he went away and began to proclaim in the Decapolis how much Jesus had done for him, and everyone marveled.

In this passage, it is clearly confirmed that animals also have a spirit because apparently they, too, are susceptible to possession by evil spirits.

This notion is mentioned a couple of times in the Book of Revelation of the Holy Bible. Let's check out those brief verses.

Revelation 16:13-14 (The Book of the Gentiles)

And I saw, coming out of the mouth of the dragon and out of the mouth of the beast and out of the mouth of the false prophet, three unclean spirits like frogs. For they are demonic spirits.

Revelation 18:2 (The Book of the Gentiles)

“Fallen, fallen is Babylon the great! She has become a dwelling place for demons, a haunt for every unclean spirit, a haunt for every unclean bird, a haunt for every unclean and detestable beast.”

So, these passages imply that animals can likewise be filled and reinforced with The Holy Spirit of GOD. There just so happens to be an interesting Biblical story that supports that claim.

In the Book of Numbers in the Old Testament of the Holy Bible, a man named Balaam is dead set on a mission that GOD does not approve of, so GOD sends a sword-wielding angel to intercept and block his path. At first, the angel is mystically seen only by the donkey that Balaam is riding. So, she, the donkey stops before the angel. Balaam starts beating the donkey for refusing to move, and GOD miraculously grants the donkey the ability to speak to Balaam and eventually save his life via The Holy Spirit.

Let's check it out.

The Book of Light

Numbers 22: 22-33 (The Book of the Jews)

God's anger was kindled because he [i.e., Balaam] went, and the angel of The LORD took His stand in the way as his adversary. Now he was riding on the donkey, and his two servants were with him. And the donkey saw the angel of The LORD standing in the road, with a drawn sword in His hand. And the donkey turned aside out of the road and went into the field. And Balaam struck the donkey, to turn her into the road. Then the angel of The LORD stood in a narrow path between the vineyards, with a wall on either side. And when the donkey saw the angel of The LORD, she pushed against the wall and pressed Balaam's foot against the wall. So, he struck her again. Then the angel of The LORD went ahead and stood in a narrow place, where there was no way to turn either to the right or to the left. When the donkey saw the angel of The LORD, she lay down under Balaam. And Balaam's anger was kindled, and he struck the donkey with his staff. Then The LORD opened the mouth of the donkey, and she said to Balaam, "What have I done to you, that you have struck me these three times?" And Balaam said to the donkey, "Because you have made a fool of me. I wish I had a sword in my hand, for then I would kill you." And the donkey said to Balaam, "Am I not your donkey, on which you have ridden all your life long to this day? Is it my habit to treat you this way?" And he said, "No." Then The LORD opened the eyes of Balaam, and he saw the angel of The LORD standing in the way, with His drawn sword in His hand. And he bowed down and fell on his face. And the angel of The LORD said to him, "Why have you struck your donkey these three times? Behold, I have come out to oppose you because your way is perverse before me. The donkey saw me and turned aside before me these three times. If she had not turned aside from me, surely just now I would have killed you and let her live."

Notice the overall repetitive use of just this one particular angel, who appears to be a prime advocate for the people of Israel. He continuously speaks with a commanding authority throughout all the passages he's in. Now he wields a sword.

The concept of the body being a vessel is nothing new. It existed much longer than the majority of you who will read this. However, I think it's more suitable to analogize the body to a vehicle—a minivan to be exact—a means for people to physically navigate the Earth while they are temporarily living on it, because all human beings are spiritual visitors just passing through.

In the driver's seat of this minivan, of course, is one's true essence—one's soul or spirit.

The Book of Light

What happens in the case of a possession is that one's spirit gets pushed aside into the passenger seat, and the possessing spirit takes control of the wheel.

In the case of the man whom Jesus delivered from the Legion of evil spirits, his actual spirit gets pushed to the farthest and least desirable seat, all the way in the back of the minivan, especially after every seat in front of him is crammed past its holding capacity with evil spirits.

This is the kind of stuff that happens during a possession. In some instances, the spirit of a living person can be entirely displaced, leaving his existing body totally hijacked by the evil spirit(s). This is called soul snatching or body hijacking.

That gives a whole new meaning to selling your soul to the devil, doesn't it?

It also means that there are "people" living among us as hollowed-out shells completely taken over by evil entities, not just possessed by them. There's a difference.

This concept is clearly depicted in the 2005 supernatural horror film entitled The Skeleton Key, starring Kate Hudson.

With all that said, it is extremely important that you take extra precaution about whom you let into your midst, especially whom you allow into your bedroom, because not all people are exactly what they appear to be on the outside.

This and many other types of dark practices fall under the category of Black Magic. Let's continue briefly going over some more dark practices.

Divination

Divination (noun): the practice of seeking knowledge of the future or the unknown by supernatural means.

Divination includes the use of astrology, horoscopes, palm reading, tarot cards, and other pagan practices that invoke the powers of darkness to predict the future.

The Book of Light

Leviticus 19:26 (The Book of the Jews)

You [i.e., the Israelites] shall not interpret omens or tell fortunes.

1 Samuel 15:23 (The Book of the Jews)

Rebellion is as the sin of divination, and presumption is as iniquity and idolatry.

But not all divination is bad, especially if it is induced by the powers of The Holy Spirit. Joseph, the highly favored son of Jacob, put his brothers to the test after he accused them of stealing his valuable divination cup.

Genesis 44:4-5 (The Book of the Jews)

They [i.e., Joseph's brothers] had gone only a short distance from the city. Now Joseph said to his steward, "Up, follow after the men, and when you overtake them, say to them, 'Why have you repaid evil for good? Is it not from this that my lord drinks, and by this that he practices divination? You have done evil in doing this.'"

When the steward brought the brothers back to face Joseph, he was very clear about where he stood with divination.

Genesis 44:15 (The Book of the Jews)

Joseph said to them, "What deed is this that you have done? Do you not know that a man like me can indeed practice divination?"

The Holy Spirit does it all. It granted Jesus the power of divination to know that Judas was going to betray Him, and that His most loyal disciple, Peter, was going to deny Him three times.

The Book of Light

Let's check out the passage where Jesus uses The Holy Spirit's divination powers to tell His disciples about some pending future events yet to unfold.

Matthew 26:30-35 (The Book of the Gentiles)

And when they had sung a hymn, they went out to the Mount of Olives. Then Jesus said to them, "You will all fall away because of Me this night. For it is written, 'I will strike the shepherd, and the sheep of the flock will be scattered.' But after I am raised up, I will go before you to Galilee." Peter answered Him, "Though they all fall away because of You, I will never fall away." Jesus said to him, "Truly, I tell you, this very night, before the rooster crows, you will deny Me three times." Peter said to Him, "Even if I must die with You, I will not deny You!" And all the disciples said the same.

At the end of the day, what Jesus predicted came to pass.

Matthew 26:69-75 (The Book of the Gentiles)

Now Peter was sitting outside in the courtyard. And a servant girl came up to him and said, "You also were with Jesus the Galilean." But he denied it before them all, saying, "I do not know what you mean." And when he went out to the entrance, another servant girl saw him, and she said to the bystanders, "This man was with Jesus of Nazareth." And again, he denied it with an oath: "I do not know the man." After a little while the bystanders came up and said to Peter, "Certainly you too are one of them, for your accent betrays you." Then he began to invoke a curse on himself and to swear, "I do not know the man." And immediately the rooster crowed. And Peter remembered the saying of Jesus, "Before the rooster crows, you will deny Me three times." And he went out and wept bitterly.

Blood Magic

Blood magic incorporates the use of a few drops of blood to create a magical bond between the spellcaster and the spell or to augment the power of a spell. To spellcasters, blood is an ultimate magical paradox because it is not only associated with death and pain, but more importantly with life. Taking blood can terminate a life, and giving it can save one.

The Book of Light

Leviticus 17:14 (The Book of the Jews)

For the life of every creature is its blood: its blood is its life.

As I stated earlier, for every case of GOD's holy divine magic, evil perpetrators are capable of conjuring a sinister dark counterpart.

Matthew 12:24 (The Book of the Gentiles)

They [i.e., Pharisees] said, "It is only by Beelzebul, the prince of demons, that this man [i.e., Jesus] casts out demons."

Matthew 12:28 (The Book of the Gentiles)

If it is by the Spirit of GOD [i.e., The Holy Spirit] that I [i.e., Jesus] cast out demons, then the Kingdom of GOD has come upon you.

So, needless to say, for every dark sorcerous artform, there is an original divine version that is being emulated.

Exodus 24:6-8 (The Book of the Jews)

And Moses took half of the blood and put it in basins, and half of the blood he threw against the altar. Then he took the Book of the Covenant and read it in the hearing of the people.

And they said, "All that The Lord has spoken we will do, and we will be obedient."

And Moses took the blood and threw it on the people and said, "Behold the blood of the covenant that The Lord has made with you in accordance with all these words."

The Book of Light

Necromancy

Necromancy is a practice of magic involving communication with the dead—either by summoning their spirits as apparitions or by raising them bodily—for the purposes of foretelling future events, discovering hidden knowledge, bringing someone back from the dead, or using the dead as weapons.

The practice of necromancy is depicted very clearly in the first Book of Samuel in the Old Testament of the Holy Bible, when the very first king of ancient Israel, Saul, disguises himself as a commoner to seek the guidance and help of a medium to bring back the spirit of the deceased prophet Samuel, after he himself orders a ban on the use of mediums.

Let's take a look at that passage.

1 Samuel 28:8-12 (The Book of the Jews)

So, Saul disguised himself and put on other garments and went, he and two men with him. And they came to the woman by night. And he said, "Divine for me by a spirit and bring up for me whomever I shall name to you." The woman said to him, "Surely you know what Saul has done, how he has cut off the mediums and the necromancers from the land. Why then are you laying a trap for my life to bring about my death?" But Saul swore to her by The Lord, "As The Lord lives, no punishment shall come upon you for this thing." Then the woman said, "Whom shall I bring up for you?" He said, "Bring up Samuel for me." When the woman saw Samuel, she cried out with a loud voice. And the woman said to Saul, "Why have you deceived me? You are Saul."

Although necromancy was practiced in some shape or form in nearly every ancient civilization, it primarily began in ancient Persia, Greece, and Rome, with a resurgence during the Middle Ages. It was a custom practiced heavily in the ancient world. So, God forbade the ancient people of Israel from doing it.

The Book of Light

Leviticus 19:31 (The Book of the Jews)

“Do not turn to mediums or necromancers; do not seek them out, and so make yourselves unclean by them: I am The Lord your God.”

This is the main reason why royals and nobles of the Middle Ages and the Renaissance period would have their bodies burned after death instead of buried. They did so to avoid being weaponized as a zombie.

Zombification

Let's define the word Zombie.

Zombie (noun): a corpse said to be revived by witchcraft, especially in certain African and Caribbean religions.

Zombification, one of the purposes of necromancy, has always been wrongfully associated solely with Haitian voodoo, but that is not the case. One of the more memorable stories about zombification is the narrative of Sextus Pompey, a Roman military leader and politician who, in 49 B.C., sought out the help of Erichtho, a Thessalian witch known to be both horrifying and dangerous, to learn the outcome of Caesar's civil war before it occurred. Regardless of Erichtho's unfavorable reputation, Sextus was desperate to obtain her knowledge.

Erichtho, a proficient necromancer who set up residence in a graveyard to facilitate her conversations with the dead, promised to help Sextus with his query. In a gruesome scene, she wandered a battlefield in search of a cadaver whose neck and lungs still allowed it to speak, and when she found one, she and Sextus brought the body into a cave, where she prepared it for her ritual. Calling on the help of the god Hermes, the guide of the dead, and other supernatural powers, she successfully summoned the soldier's spirit and reanimated his body.

The animated body then described for Sextus the bleak civil war on the horizon and the inevitability of his own early death. Despite the bad news from the spirit, Sextus was satisfied because, above all else, he knew his fate.

As appalling as this story may sound, the process of successfully summoning the soul of the departed to return was performed a few times by Jesus through The Holy Spirit. One memorable instance of holy zombification occurs in the story of the deceased Lazarus.

John 11:39-44 (The Book of the Gentiles)

Jesus said, "Take away the stone."

Martha, the sister of the dead man, said to Him, "Lord, by this time there will be an odor, for he has been dead four days."

Jesus said to her, "Did I not tell you that if you believed you would see the glory of God?"

So, they took away the stone. And Jesus lifted up his eyes and said, "Father, I thank you that you have heard Me. I knew that you always hear Me, but I said this on account of the people standing around, that they may believe that you sent Me."

When He had said these things, He cried out with a loud voice, "Lazarus, come out!"

The man who had died came out, his hands and feet bound with linen strips, and his face wrapped with a cloth. Jesus said to them, "Unbind him, and let him go."

Holy Zombification through The Holy Spirit was also performed by the Old Testament prophet Elijah.

1 Kings 17:17-24 (The Book of the Jews)

The son of the woman, the mistress of the house, became ill. And his illness was so severe that there was no breath left in him. And she said to Elijah, "What have you against me, O man of God? You have come to me to bring my sin to remembrance and to cause the death of my son!"

The Book of Light

And he said to her, "Give me your son." And he took him from her arms and carried him up into the upper chamber where he lodged, and laid him on his own bed. And he cried to The Lord, "O Lord my God, have you brought calamity even upon the widow with whom I sojourn, by killing her son?" Then he stretched himself upon the child three times and cried to The Lord, "O Lord my God, let this child's life come into him again."

And The Lord listened to the voice of Elijah. And the life of the child came into him again, and he revived. And Elijah took the child and brought him down from the upper chamber into the house and delivered him to his mother. And Elijah said, "See, your son lives."

And the woman said to Elijah, "Now I know that you are a man of God."

This is specifically why the Archangel Michael disputed with Satan over Moses' dead body.

Jude 1:9 (The Book of the Gentiles)

But when the Archangel Michael, contending with the devil, was disputing about the body of Moses, He did not presume to pronounce a blasphemous judgment, but said, "The LORD rebuke you."

Holy Magic

Holy Magic summons all beings and entities of light, all healing spirits, and all spirits of safekeeping—that is, guardian angels. That sounds good, but why not just cut out the middle man and pray directly to God? After all, that is what He says to do in His own words.

Matthew 6:6-8 (The Book of the Gentiles)

When you pray, go into your room, close the door and pray to your Father, who is unseen. Then your Father, who sees what is done in secret, will reward you. And when you pray, do not keep on babbling like pagans, for they think they will be heard because of their many words. Do not be like them, for your Father knows what you need before you ask Him.

Invoking angels for help and protection instead of summoning God, first and foremost, is heresy at its finest. John of Patmos clearly demonstrated that when he worshiped the angel who was revealing to him all the apocalyptic prophecies.

Revelation 22:8-9 (The Book of the Gentiles)

I, John, am the one who heard and saw these things. And when I heard and saw them, I fell down to worship at the feet of the angel who showed them to me, but he said to me, "You must not do that! I am a fellow servant with you and your brothers the prophets, and with those who keep the words of this book. Worship God."

When John fell to worship at the angel's feet a second time, he was reminded again.

Revelation 19:9-10 (The Book of the Gentiles)

And the angel said to me, "Write this: Blessed are those who are invited to the marriage supper of the Lamb." And he said to me, "These are the true words of God." Then I fell down at his feet to worship him, but he said to me, "You must not do that! I am a fellow servant with you and your brothers who hold to the testimony of Jesus. Worship God."

Other workings of Holy Magic include, but are not limited to, scrying (i.e., using a crystal ball or other reflective surfaces for divination purposes), conjuring counter-curses to abolish main curses, exorcising demons, channeling spirits, automatic writing, and healing, just to name a few.

Sorcery, incantations, astrology, and cutting roots and trees for potions were all well-guarded heavenly secrets underhandedly taught to humans by disreputable fallen angels. These kinds of magic were never intended for mankind to know, let alone to use. The practice of these kinds of dark arts was so problematic in the ancient world that it required God to admonish the people of Israel against their use before they entered the Promised Land.

The Book of Light

Deuteronomy 18:9-12 (The Book of the Jews)

When you come into the land that The Lord your God is giving you, you shall not learn to follow the abominable practices of those nations. There shall not be found among you anyone who burns his son or his daughter as an offering, anyone who practices divination or tells fortunes or interprets omens, or a sorcerer or a charmer or a medium or a necromancer or one who inquires of the dead, for whoever does these things is an abomination to The Lord.

Having said all that, this chapter has barely scratched the surface of just how paranormal our true existence really is. Our earthly habitat is so mind-bogglingly entrenched in the supernatural that it's hard not to notice how the world is bursting at the seams with ineffectively contained paranormal activities. So, we are about to delve deeper into The Holy Bible to really see just how supernatural this whole world we live in truly is, and, at the same time, we are going to explore where Black Magic and sorcery originated and who their mysterious conjurers actually are.

The Book of Light

Chapter 3: *The Fall of the Sons of God

There is a remarkable story about a lesser known Biblical figure named Enoch, that I believe is the greatest story never told. However, why his story is not included in the Holy Bible is completely unethical, since at one point in time it was.

By the 4th century A.D., The Book of Enoch was censored and entirely removed from the Christian canon as being apocryphal—that is, fictitious and extremely implausible.

apocryphal (adjective): (of a story or statement) of doubtful authenticity, although widely circulated as being true. (“an apocryphal story about a former president”)

I am going to show you that the only reason why the Holy Bible has become such a discombobulated mess, open to countless contradictory interpretations, is due to the removal of Enoch’s essential book. I know, that is a pretty bold statement to make, but one must ask, why, then, did the Biblical editors take it out? I am going to paint the picture and let you make sense of all of it, using your own good judgment.

Excerpt from the Second Book of Enoch

“There have been many books since the beginning of creation, and there will be until the end of the age; but not one of them will make things as plain to you as the books in my handwriting.”

The Book of Light

That being said, I think it is only fitting that I tell Enoch's story right here and now, at the start of this chapter.

Enoch

Enoch was the great-grandfather of Noah, the survivor of the Great Flood. One evening, something inconceivable happened to him when two angels, Samoila and Raguila, came to him, hoisted him up onto their wings, and personally escorted him up to Heaven, alive.

Excerpt from the Second Book of Enoch

I was in my house alone. And I lay on my bed, sleeping. And while I slept, a great distress entered my heart, and I was weeping with my eyes in a dream. I could not figure out what this distress might be, nor what might be happening to me. Then two huge men appeared to me, the like of which I had never seen on Earth. Their faces were like the shining Sun; their eyes were like burning lamps; from their mouths fire was coming forth; their clothing was various singing; their wings were more glistening than gold; their hands were whiter than snow. And they stood at the head of my bed and called me by my name. Then I awoke from my sleep, and I saw those men, standing in front of me, in actuality. Then I bowed down to them; and I was terrified; and the appearance of my face was changed because of fear. Then those men said to me, "Be brave, Enoch! In truth, do not fear! The Eternal GOD has sent us to you. Behold, you will ascend with us to Heaven today.

Flying through the stratosphere with Samoila and Raguila, Enoch witnessed seven distinct levels of Heaven with them on his way up to the highest otherworldly tenth level.

On the first level, he saw the ether spread out like a vast blue ocean.

On the second level, he saw darkness and weeping angels held prisoner under guard, awaiting judgment.

On the third level, he saw Paradise, where the Tree of Life was on one side, and a dark, torturous detention of black fire and ice was on the other side.

On the fourth level, he saw the movement and sequence of the Sun, Moon and Stars.

The Book of Light

On the fifth level, he saw the abundant army of disenchanted, humanlike angels, called Grigori.

On the sixth level, he saw the distinguished realm of the Archangels.

On the seventh level, he saw an exceptionally great light and beheld the fiery armies, including the great archangels of the Seraphim and Cherubim.

Samoila and Raguila released Enoch from the seventh level to the custody of Archangel Gabriel, who then proceeded to escort him to the tenth level, where he encountered GOD in the holy flesh, sitting on HIS throne in all HIS Splendor and Glory.

Enoch is the only person ever recorded to have seen the actual face of GOD and lived to tell about it. That is just simply unheard of.

While Enoch was in Heaven, GOD esteemed him over the heavenly hosts, commanding HIS Archistrateger or supreme commander, the Archangel Michael, to consecrate Enoch. Thus, Michael stepped forward and anointed Enoch with an enchanting luminescent oil that transfigured his human form so that it appeared just like the other heavenly beings. Enoch's flesh was turned to flame, his veins to fire, his eyelashes to flashes of lightning, and his eyeballs to flaming torches.

Michael then dressed Enoch in heavenly attire and brought him back before GOD's throne.

Archangel Vrevoil, better known as Vretiel, the most knowledgeable of the archangels and keeper of recording deeds, was instructed to fetch a pen and notebook for Enoch to record minutes about all the mysteries and secrets of both Heaven and Earth as revealed to him directly from the mouth of GOD.

Excerpt from the Second Book of Enoch

The LORD called me and said to me, “Enoch, sit to the left of ME with Gabriel.” And I did obeisance to The LORD. And The LORD spoke to me: “Enoch, beloved, whatever you see and whatever things are standing still or moving about were brought to perfection by ME. I, MYSELF, will explain it to you.

For a period of thirty days and thirty nights, Enoch was revealed exclusive information about Heaven and Earth. With all the notes that Enoch acquired, he authored the five-part ledgers that comprise The Book of Enoch:

The Book of the Watchers
The Book of Parables of Enoch
The Book of the Heavenly Luminaries
The Book of Dreams
The Epistle of Enoch

Excerpt from the Second Book of Enoch

I sat down for a second period of thirty days and thirty nights, and I wrote everything accurately.

GOD then gave Enoch an additional thirty-day grace period to return to Earth and instruct his sons and all the members of his household about everything HE had revealed to him in Heaven.

After Enoch’s period of grace expired, GOD sent HIS angel (the angel of The LORD) to bring Enoch back to Heaven, this time permanently.

Excerpt from the Second Book of Enoch

“And now, Enoch, I am giving you a respite period of thirty days to set your house in order, to instruct your sons, and all the members of your household, about everything from ME, personally, so that they may obey what is said to them by you. They will read and understand that there is no other God apart from MYSELF, so that they may carry out all your instructions and study the books in your handwriting, accurately and attentively. After thirty days, I shall send for

The Book of Light

you MY angel, He will take you up from the Earth, and from your sons to ME.”

Enoch became renowned as the Righteous Scribe or the Scribe of Righteousness. He never died a physical death. He was simply carried away to Heaven, alive and well, never to return.

In Heaven, Enoch became the mighty angel known as Archangel Metatron. I know that sounds just like the character Megatron in the Transformers franchise, but the film executives surely borrowed the name and concept from The Book of Enoch, because Enoch literally transformed from an earthly man to a heavenly man, as the Apostle Paul proclaimed to the people of Corinth about humanity being earthly and heavenly:

1 Corinthians 15:49 (The Book of the Gentiles)

Just as we have borne the image of the earthly man, so shall we bear the image of the heavenly man.

Enoch, as Archangel Metatron, is still today a powerful scribe in Heaven, recording the deeds of all people on Earth, and is currently active as the Voice of GOD—that is, a heavenly judge.

Excerpt from the Third Book of Enoch

“This is Metatron, MY servant. I have made him into a Prince [i.e., a judge] and a ruler over all the Princes of MY kingdoms and over all the children of Heaven, except the eight great Princes, the honored and revered ones who are called YHWH, by the name of their King. And every angel and every Prince who has a word to speak in MY presence before ME shall go into his presence before him and shall speak to him instead. And every command that he utters to you in MY name do ye observe and fulfill.”

This is what the Holy Bible had to say about Enoch:

The Book of Light

Genesis 5:24 (The Book of the Jews)

And Enoch walked with God: and he was not; for God took him.

This one little passage in the Book of Genesis of the Holy Bible is all that the Biblical editors left about Enoch in the entire Old Testament. Not only did they remove his books, but they barely even acknowledged him, let alone touch on his incredible accomplishments.

Someone preferred to keep his story and writings hushed, but I'm going to demonstrate how authentic and vital his ledgers really are.

Excerpt from the First Book of Enoch

I beheld a view, and lo and behold there was a second house greater than the former, and the entire doorway stood open before me, and it was built of flames of fire.

And in every respect, it was so excelled in splendor and magnificence and extent that I cannot describe to you its splendor and its extent.

Its floor was of fire, and above it were continuous flashes of lightning and the path of the Stars.

Its ceiling also was flaming fire. And I looked within and saw an exalted Throne; its appearance was as crystal, and the wheels thereof as the shining Sun.

And there was a spectacle of Cherubim. And from underneath the Throne came streams of flaming fire, so that I could not look thereon. And the GREAT GLORY sat thereon, and HIS garment shone more brightly than the Sun and was whiter than any snow.

None of the angels could enter and could behold HIS face by reason of the magnificence and glory. And no flesh could behold HIM.

The Flaming Fire was round about HIM, and a Great Fire stood before HIM, and none around could draw near HIM.

Ten thousand times ten thousand stood before HIM, yet HE needed no counselor. And the most holy ones who were near to HIM did not leave by night nor depart from HIM.

Up until then, I had been prostrate on my face, trembling, and The LORD called me with HIS own mouth and said to me, "Come here, Enoch, and hear MY Word."

And One of the Holy ones came to me and waked me, and he made me rise up and approach the door, and I bowed my face downwards.

The Book of Light

This excerpt from the Book of Enoch is almost identical to the following passage written by John of Patmos in the Book of Revelation:

Revelation 4:1-6 (The Book of the Gentiles)

I looked, and behold, a door standing open in Heaven! And the first voice, which I had heard speaking to me like a trumpet, said, "Come up here, and I will show you what must take place after this."

At once I was in the Spirit, and behold, a Throne stood in Heaven, with ONE seated on the Throne. And HE who sat there had the appearance of jasper and carnelian, and around the Throne was a rainbow that had the appearance of an emerald.

Around the Throne were twenty-four thrones, and seated on the thrones were twenty-four Elders, clothed in white garments, with golden crowns on their heads.

From the Throne came flashes of lightning, and rumblings and peals of thunder, and before the Throne were burning seven torches of fire, which are the seven spirits of God, and before the Throne there was as it were a sea of glass, like crystal.

From the Book of Enoch, we learn in detail the origin of angels, the backstory of fallen angels, the ascension and demise of an ancient race of giants called The Nephilim, and the ascension of the disembodied evil spirits spawned from them. That is a lot of information to just throw away!

Let's take a look at a very specific passage from the Book of Enoch where he writes, in the first person (dictation style), how GOD brought about the holy army of angel-warriors known as the Cherubim.

Excerpt from the Second Book of Enoch

"And for all MY OWN Heavens, I shaped the shape from the fiery substance. MY Eyes looked at the solid and very hard rock. From the Flash of MY Eye, I took the marvelous substance of lightning, both fire in water and water in fire; neither does this one extinguish that one, nor does that one dry out this one. This is why lightning is sharper and brighter than the shining of the sun, and softer than

water, more solid than the hardest rock.

From the rock, I cut off a great fire, and from the fire I created the ranks of the bodiless armies—ten myriad Angels—their weapons are fiery, and their clothes are burning flames. I gave orders that each should stand in his own rank.

Lucifer, one of the orders of the archangels, deviated, together with the division that was under his authority. He thought up the impossible idea that he might place his throne higher than the clouds which are above the Earth, and that he might become equal to MY Power.

I hurled him out from the height, together with his Angels. And he was flying around in the air ceaselessly, above the bottomless. Thus, I created the entire Heavens and the third day came.”

The bottomless reference in this passage refers to the open Sea on Earth. Keep that in mind, because that reference is important. We will discuss its significance down the line.

From this excerpt in the Book of Enoch, two important things are made clear. First, we gather that GOD created all the angels inhabiting Heaven on the second day of creation. For reasons left unexplained, the Biblical editors took the angels’ significant origin and creation story out of the Holy Bible.

We will get to the bottom of some real answers soon. But in the meantime, we also learn from this excerpt that these formidable angelic beings, formed out of the fiery substance of lightning, were primarily conceived as part of GOD’s great army.

Throughout the Holy Bible and the Book of Enoch, these angel-warriors, known as the Cherubim, are consistently referred to as the sons of God, indicating that they were all male.

Also made clear by the above excerpt from the Book of Enoch is that “Lucifer,” as he is called here, and the entire division of angels under his authority, were not spirits condemned to the fiery pits of Hell, as some people have been led to believe, because he is described as flying in the air ceaselessly after he is hurled out of Heaven by God.

So, it is safe to assume that the members of the rebellious division under “Lucifer” were all banished or exiled from Heaven in the same way as “Lucifer” himself.

The Book of Light

Let's brush up on "Lucifer's" backstory and his fall.

The Fallen Son of God

According to the Book of Ezekiel in the Old Testament, "Lucifer" (whose name literally means "Light Bearer") was anointed by GOD with a special unction and then appointed to reign in Eden as the chief Guardian Cherub, archangel over the Cherubim armies, and the order of the Serpents.

The Serpents were apparently a clever form of supernatural wildlife, not the snakes we know.

Genesis 3:1 (The Book of the Jews)

Now the serpent was more crafty than any other beast of the field that The Lord God had made.

Lucifer was the seal of perfection, full of wisdom and virtuous in every way. He was a powerful archangel, with the entire mighty holy armies of Cherubim under his authority.

As GOD's light-bringing morning Star of Heaven, he was made so luminous and beautiful that he transcended all the other angels in appearance. He was adorned with Heaven's finest precious gemstones: beryl, carbuncle, diamonds, emeralds, gold, jasper, onyx, rubies, sapphires, and topaz. He was gratified beyond all measure.

At the most unsuspecting moment, GOD solemnly informed Lucifer of a second task HE needed him to carry out, and that's when everything went horribly wrong.

However, Lucifer declined the second task; in fact, downright refused it. He even pleaded with GOD to choose someone else, but it was already written and destined to be. This second task was actually the true reason GOD brought him into existence at all.

The Book of Light

Revelation 12:12 (The Book of the Gentiles)

The devil has come down to you in great wrath, because he knows that his time is short!”

Lucifer started burning erratically after the mention of this second task, to the point where he resolved to take matters into his own hands by overthrowing GOD and governing in a way that he deemed to be more objective and just.

All of this is specified in the Book of Ezekiel in the Old Testament of the Holy Bible.

Ezekiel 28:14-17 (The Book of the Jews)

“You were an anointed guardian Cherub. I placed you; you were on the Holy Mountain of God; in the midst of the Stones of Fire you walked. You were blameless in your ways from the day you were created, till unrighteousness was found in you. In the abundance of your trade you were filled with violence in your midst, and you sinned; so, I cast you as a profane thing from the Mountain of God, and I destroyed you, O guardian Cherub, from the midst of the Stones of Fire. Your heart was proud because of your beauty; you corrupted your wisdom for the sake of your splendor. I cast you to the ground; I exposed you before Kings, to feast their eyes on you. By the multitude of your iniquities, in the unrighteousness of your trade you profaned your sanctuaries; so, I brought fire out from your midst; it consumed you, and I turned you to ashes on the Earth in the sight of all who saw you.”

Through his passion and charisma, Lucifer was able to successfully convince a third of the Cherubim armies under his order to join him in this quest of insurrection. Thus, they became the rebellious angels.

Unfortunately for Lucifer and his rebellious brigade, before they could ever reach GOD, they first had to get through HIS definitive line of defense—HIS supreme commander and

The Book of Light

Archistrateger, Archangel Michael. Wielding a viciously Sentient Sword in the forefront of the remaining battalion of holy Cherubim, Michael was a beast of a fighter.

The War in Heaven

When the Archangel Michael let out an expressive battle cry, total war broke out in Heaven. Lucifer quickly realized that he was no match for the brute strength and epic swordsmanship of Archangel Michael, so he deviously transformed himself into a large mythical, fire-breathing dragon, but even in this menacing form, he did not stand a chance against the raw wrath of the ultimate Archangel of GOD.

Michael protectively barricaded himself behind a mystical shield of armor and proceeded to charge the dragon.

With the same level of fierceness, the ferocious battalion of holy Cherubim armies behind Michael proficiently warded off the dragon's rebellious Cherubim to the very edge of Heaven and ruthlessly kicked them down and out toward Earth.

Meanwhile, Archangel Michael singlehandedly backed the dragon right up to the brink of Heaven's edge. Realizing that he was defeated, Lucifer changed back to his angelic form and arrogantly muttered, "This is not the end."

With that, Michael planted his foot in the middle of Lucifer's chest and kicked him off the edge. As Lucifer fell back, he cunningly grabbed hold of Michael's wing in a failed attempt to bring him down, too; but Michael was caught and rescued by the hand of GOD.

Revelation 12:7-9 (The Book of the Gentiles)

Now war arose in Heaven, Michael and his angels fighting against the dragon. And the dragon and his angels fought back, but he was defeated, and there was no longer any place for them in Heaven. And the great dragon was thrown down, that ancient serpent, who is called the devil and Satan, the deceiver of the whole world—he was thrown down to the Earth, and his angels were thrown down with him.

The Book of Light

Michael and the exceptional battalion of holy Cherubim armies stood triumphantly on Heaven's edge and watched Lucifer and his entire crew of rebellious Cherubim mystically fall down from Heaven like raging lightning, as Jesus describes the scene in the Book of Luke.

Luke 10:18 (The Book of the Gentiles)

“I saw Satan fall like lightning from Heaven.”

One-third of GOD's celestial Cherubim were expelled from Heaven that day.

Revelation 12:3-4 (The Book of the Gentiles)

Behold, a great red dragon, with seven heads and ten horns, and on his heads seven diadems. His tail swept down a third of the Stars of Heaven and cast them to the Earth.

This war scene was not a metaphor or allegory. Even then, Lucifer had a flair for changing into mythical reptilian creatures, first a dragon and later a serpent. That would mark the first of many more battles between Angels of Light and Angels of Darkness—Holy Angels versus Fallen Angels.

Because Lucifer desecrated Heaven and dishonored GOD, his angelic beauty consequently faded, and he evolved into a spiritual creature called the Devil. In doing so, he rightfully became different from the holy angels, a heinous creature whose angelic nature nevertheless did not change because he was not stripped of his powers.

The Book of Light

Excerpt from the Second Book of Enoch

Lucifer has become a demon, because he fled from Heaven. In this way, he became different from the angels. His nature did not change, but his thought did, since his consciousness of righteous and sinful things changed.

Beside losing his angelic beauty, Lucifer as the Devil was helplessly rendered mortal in our physical realm by having his holy fire literally extracted out of him.

Ezekiel 28:18 (The Book of the Jews)

By the multitude of your iniquities, in the unrighteousness of your trade you profaned your sanctuaries; so, I brought fire out from your midst; it consumed you, and I turned you to ashes on the Earth in the sight of all who saw you.

Without his holy fire, Lucifer resorted to ruling and governing from the spirit realm. This is an important notion that I will expound on later.

In the Book of Ephesians, the concept of Lucifer delegating to his angels from the spirit realm after having his holy fire extracted is explained to the people of Ephesus.

Ephesians 2:1-2 (The Book of the Gentiles)

And you were dead in the trespasses and sins in which you once walked, following the course of this world, following the Prince of the Power of the Air, the Spirit that is now at work in the Sons of disobedience.

After being expelled from Heaven, Lucifer was set apart and renamed Satan, the adversary of God, because his thoughts and perceptions of things righteous and sinful altered significantly. A close to true depiction of what Satan became was depicted as the “fictional” character Calibos in the 1981 film Clash of the Titans.

The Book of Light

The Living Creatures

The entire division of rebellious Cherubim that conspired with the dragon suffered a similar fate, just not as extreme. Due to their hidden and mysterious nature, we don't know much about them.

However, a British conspiracy theorist named David Icke presented to the mainstream a theory about humanlike entities that may very well pertain to these rebellious Cherubim. He boldly claims that prominent people around the world are lizardlike humanoid aliens.

alien (noun): a hypothetical or fictional being from another world. (“an alien from outer space”)

Aliens in the above sense are not real. So, to avoid confusion, I will refer to what the rebellious Cherubim evolved into as Orgs, a name I have created from the word organism. Thus, an Org is a living, breathing nonhuman creature that embodies all of the properties of life. In effect, an Org is a synonym for life form. However, the Orgs are extremely evil.

In the Book of Ezekiel, a small group of Orgs who come in to land from the north are meticulously described as living creatures.

Ezekiel 1:4-10 (The Book of the Jews)

As I looked, behold, a stormy wind came out of the north, and a great cloud, with brightness around it, and fire flashing forth continually, and in the midst of the fire, as it were gleaming metal. And from the midst of it came the likeness of four living creatures. And this was their appearance: they had a human likeness, but each had four faces, and each of them had four wings. Their legs were straight, and the soles of their feet were like the sole of a calf's foot. And they sparkled like burnished bronze. Under their wings on their four sides they had human hands. And the four had their faces and their wings thus: their wings touched one another. Each one of them went straight forward, without turning as they went. As for the likeness of their faces, each had a human face.

There are clearly humanlike entities coexisting in this world all around us. That is implied throughout the Holy Bible as a constant warning that no one in the modern world has cared to noticed—perhaps because Sunday morning sermons are being preached about the wrong things.

1 Corinthians 15:39 (The Book of the Gentiles)

For not all flesh is the same.

As I said about magic earlier, just because you don't believe something is real does not mean it does not exist all around you. Another major clue that emphasizes that there are humanlike entities among us is heavily suggested by the creation story of mankind in the Old Testament. We have all heard the infamous line that we were created in the image and likeness of GOD.

Genesis 1: 26 (The Book of the Jews)

And God said, "Let us make man in Our image, after Our likeness."

What we have all failed to consider about this notion is, what other image and likeness of man actually exists in this world? The answer to that mysterious question is practically spoonfed to us in the entire first chapter of the Book of Ezekiel in the Old Testament of the Holy Bible.

Ezekiel 1:4-5 (the Book of the Jews)

As I looked, behold, a stormy wind came out of the north, and a great cloud, with brightness around it, and fire flashing forth continually, and in the midst of the fire, as it were gleaming metal. And from the midst of it came the likeness of four living creatures. And this was their appearance: they had a human likeness.

The Book of Light

And there you have it! The image and likeness of a human being—a living, breathing human imposter, cleverly identified as living creatures, just like human beings.

Genesis 2:7 (The Book of the Jews)

Then The Lord God formed the man of dust from the ground and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life, and the man became a living creature.

There are even subtle mentions of humanlike entities hinted in the New Testament.

Acts 14:8-11 (The Book of the Gentiles)

“The gods have come down to us in the likeness of men!”

Formally known as anthropomorphous beings, as opposed to human beings, these fallen rebellious Cherubim, who were banished from Heaven with the dragon, have all mastered the art of taking on the likeness of human beings. They may look like us, but they are not one of us.

1 John 2:19 (The Book of the Gentiles)

They went out from us, but they were not of us; for if they had been of us, they would have continued with us. But they went out, that it might become plain that they all are not of us.

In their disguised human form, they are what I call Orgs. They are real, and they are here.

Let's define the word anthropomorphous.

anthropomorphous (adjective): (of a god, animal, or object) human in form or nature.

The Book of Light

The words Anthropomorphism, anthropomorphous, and anthropomorphic derive from the Greek word anthrōposi, which means “human being.” In the case of Orgs, they are nonhuman entities that can look like a human being by supernatural means.

There are three types of Orgs in our world: terrestrial Orgs, who are earth dwellers (including a subclass of subterranean Orgs); water bound Orgs, who are inhabitants of the oceans, seas, rivers, and lakes, whom I will call aquatic Orgs; and extraterrestrial occupants of the air, capable of flight, whom I will call celestial Orgs.

All of them are mentioned throughout the Old Testament of the Holy Bible.

Daniel 7:3 (The Book of the Jews)

And four great beasts came up out of the Sea, different from one another.

Daniel 7:4 (The Book of the Jews)

The first was like a lion and had eagles' wings.

Daniel 7:5 (The Book of the Jews)

A second one, like a bear.

Daniel 7:6 (The Book of the Jews)

I looked, and behold, another, like a leopard, with four wings of a bird on its back.

Daniel 7:7 (The Book of the Jews)

And behold, a fourth beast, terrifying and dreadful and exceedingly strong.

These creatures are also mentioned by John of Patmos in the New Testament of the Holy Bible.

The Book of Light

Revelation 13:1 (The Book of the Gentiles)

And I saw a beast rising out of the Sea.

Revelation 13:11 (The Book of the Gentiles)

Then I saw another beast rising out of the Earth.

Revelation 9:11 (The Book of the Gentiles)

They have as King over them the angel of the bottomless pit. His name in Hebrew is Abaddon, and in Greek he is called Apollyon.

There are stories within the stories of the Holy Bible. That literary technique is called a frame story or a frame narrative, which establishes the context for an embedded narrative, helping the author to create an alternate context for interpreting a narrative. A frame narrative also offers multiple perspectives to the readers of the story.

Because Orgs are not universally acknowledged and were never given an official name, until now, they are known and recognized by different names throughout different cultures.

In Persian mythology, there is a class of subterranean Orgs called the Manticore, a winged beast with the body of a lion, the tail of a scorpion, and the head and face of a man with a mouth filled with multiple rows of sharp teeth, like a shark.

Daniel 7:4 (The Book of the Jews)

The first was like a lion and had eagles' wings.

This falls perfectly in line with the supernatural historic myth we previously discussed in Chapter 1. So, since we're back on the subject of myth, another classic case of historic myth is the legend of the Therianthropes, also known as the Werereatures, the collective name for a group of supernatural monsters that change back and forth between animal and human form, and also vice versa.

The Book of Light

The words Therianthropy or Therianthrope combine the Greek words for “beast” (therion) and “human” (anthrōpos), indicating the ability to metamorphose back and forth between human and animal form by means of shapeshifting.

There is a group of Therianthrope animals that can change back and forth between animal and humanoid form. In this case, the suffix -were is commonly preceded by the name of that particular animal, such as the Wolfwere, the Jackalwere, and the Bearwere.

In the same way, there is a group of supernatural humanoid beings that can change into animals. In this case, the prefix were- is followed by the animal’s name, as in Werewolf, Werejackal, and Werebear.

Daniel 7:5 (The Book of the Jews)

A second one, like a bear.

Speaking of both the Werejackal and Jackalwere, the Egyptian god Anubis, guardian of the dead, literally wore his jackal alter ego loud and proud—unapologetically making no secret of his true nature. This would indicate that the ancient world looked a whole lot different than any one of us can possibly imagine.

In Hindu mythology, there is a class of Weresnakes known as the Nagas, mythical semidivine beings, half-human and half-cobra. They are Serpent People, who live secretly in underground cities. They are a strong, shapeshifting species who can assume either the form of a human or that of a serpent.

The Book of Light

Revelation 13:11 (The Book of the Gentiles)

Then I saw another beast rising out of the Earth.

Supernatural beings living below the Earth's surface are recognized and blatantly acknowledged in the New Testament of the Holy Bible:

Revelation 5:2-3 (The Book of the Gentiles)

And I saw a mighty angel proclaiming with a loud voice, "Who is worthy to open the Scroll and break its Seals?" And no one in Heaven or on Earth or Under the Earth was able to open the Scroll or to look into it.

Wait, there is another one.

Philippians 2:9-10 (The Book of the Gentiles)

Therefore, God has highly exalted Him and bestowed on Him the name that is above every name, so that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, in Heaven and on Earth and Under the Earth.

Do you see how below-the-earth life forms are documented in the Holy Bible? Let's proceed. In the case of Aquatic Orgs, there are the legendary tales of the Sea Serpent, the Loch Ness Monster, the Kraken, and of course our beloved Merpeople—Mermen and Mermaids.

Revelation 13:1 (The Book of the Gentiles)

And I saw a beast rising out of the Sea.

No one will ever know for sure which one of the beasts I listed above were seen by Daniel and John of Patmos. But as you can see, the creatures we hear about in our mythological stories are not fantasies, and the beasts mentioned in the Holy Bible are not metaphors.

The Book of Light

This is probably much more extensive than you were anticipating, but I'm just getting the ball rolling. It is time that people start facing some hard, ugly truths.

In Arabian and Muslim mythology, Orgs are loosely recognized as Jinn or Djinn, unseen beings made of fire. Jinns are even referenced in the Quran as creatures made of "smokeless fire or extinguished fire," which is fitting, because that is exactly what happened to the fallen Cherubims' light after they were cast down from Heaven.

The two most renowned Jinn from Muslim mythology are the Muslim Devil, Shaytan, which is clearly reminiscent of Satan from the Holy Bible, and the Jinn (genie) from the original "Aladdin and the Lamp" folktale, narrated in One Thousand and One Nights.

In many of the islands of the Lesser Antilles, the Orgs are known as Jumbies. In Dominica, Guadeloupe, St. Lucia, and Trinidad, they are called Soucouyant or Soucriant, which means bloodsuckers, also known as vampires. In Barbados and Jamaica, they are known as Duppy. In Grenada, Haiti, and Louisiana, they are known as Loogaroo or Lougarou. In Suriname, they are called Asema. In the Philippines, they are called Manananggal. In the Bahamas, they are known as Hag. In Guyana, they are called Ol'Higue, Ole-Higue, or Ole Haig. In the Native American Navajo culture, they are called skin-walkers. And in the United States and the rest of the First World, they are recognized as green-skinned, extraterrestrial Aliens.

The stories in all these cultures are relatively the same: the Orgs are seen randomly in remote places, typically at night. They have the ability to fly and shapeshift into animal or other human forms. They are here and they are very real.

They perpetuate their own lies by spinning a deceptive web of illusion and confusion to keep their true identities hidden.

This goes to show that traditional word-of-mouth stories, just like historic myths, are not made-up tales. This confusion is largely due to words like folktale and fairy tale being mistakenly used interchangeably. Let's define them and see.

folktale (noun): a story originating in popular culture, typically passed on by word of mouth. ("The Boy Who Cried Wolf" is a good example of a folktale")

Be mindful of the word selections here. I want you to keep in mind where you think the ancient civilization's education and literacy levels were when the stories originated.

Now let's take a look at fairy tale.

fairy tale (noun phrase): a children's story about magical and imaginary beings and lands. ("The fairy tale Princess, Fiona, was born in an enchanted kingdom called Far Far Away")

Notice that fairy tales are always fictitious, whereas folktales are not necessarily fictitious.

Now let's get back to Orgs.

The Book of Enoch talks about their fall from grace.

Excerpt from the Second Book of Enoch

"Lucifer, one of the orders of the archangels, deviated, together with the division that was under his authority. He thought up the impossible idea that he might place his throne higher than the clouds which are above the Earth, and that he might become equal to MY Power. I hurled him out from the height, together with his angels. And he was flying around in the air ceaselessly, above the bottomless."

The Book of Revelation also describes that fall.

The Book of Light

Revelation 12:9 (The Book of the Gentiles)

And the great dragon [i.e., Lucifer] was thrown down, that ancient serpent, who is called the devil and Satan, the deceiver of the whole world—he was thrown down to the Earth, and his angels were thrown down with him.

If you didn't trust it from the Book of Enoch, this passage from John of Patmos makes it even clearer that the dragon/Satan and his entire band of rebellious Cherubim/Orgs were never locked away or bound in the fiery pits of Hell, and they were not spirits.

2 Peter 2:4 (The Book of the Gentiles)

For if God did not spare angels when they sinned, but cast them into hell and committed them to chains of gloomy darkness to be kept until the judgment...

In other words, if only GOD did not spare the unruly angels when they sinned, but instead bound them to chains in Hell, life as we know it would be much easier. The rebellious Cherubim were expelled out of Heaven, but they always had and still have full access to the entire world below, which includes the land, its surface, its core, and the bottomless depths of the oceans and seas.

The Orgs are vile and highly sensual creatures that engage in unnatural sexual acts among themselves, with humans, and with animals, without discriminating sexual partners by gender. Often, they will use bait and trap tactics to lure their sexual partners.

2 Peter 2:18 (The Book of the Gentiles)

They entice by sensual passions of the flesh those who are barely escaping from those who live in error.

In the short one-chapter Book of Jude in the New Testament, it is the terrestrial Orgs who are depicted as being expelled from Sodom and Gomorrah as disreputable angels.

The Book of Light

Jude 1:6-7 (The Book of the Gentiles)

And the angels who did not stay within their own position of authority, but left their proper dwelling, He has kept in eternal chains under gloomy darkness until the judgment of the great day—just as Sodom and Gomorrah and the surrounding cities, which likewise indulged in sexual immorality and pursued unnatural desire, serve as an example by undergoing a punishment of eternal fire.

Orgs were disreputably treacherous when they inhabited Heaven, and they continue to be, even more so, on Earth. The repercussions of their actions have remained irreversibly devastating.

Throughout the Old Testament (the Book of the Jews), they are discreetly referred to as the wicked.

Isaiah 14:5-6 (The Book of the Jews)

The Lord has broken the staff of the wicked, the scepter of Rulers, that struck the peoples in wrath with unceasing blows, that ruled the Nations in anger with unrelenting persecution.

In the above passage, the word wicked is used as a noun, and I specified before that when the word the precedes a noun, as in the Wicked, it is a determiner that refers to a person, place, or thing that is unique, as in “the angel of The LORD.” The overall use of the word wicked becomes problematic and confusing, since it is most often used as an adjective, as in the Book of Numbers.

The Book of Light

Numbers 14:26-30 (The Book of the Jews)

And the Lord spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying, “How long shall this wicked congregation grumble against me?”

In the New Testament (the Book of the Gentiles), Orgs are cleverly called “the ungodly,” a discreetly disguised code name that also uses the determiner the before the noun to identify the Orgs without naming them.

2 Peter 2:6 (The Book of the Gentiles)

By turning the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah to ashes He condemned them to extinction, making them an example of what is going to happen to the ungodly.

Ungodly as a noun can also be confusing, since it is most often used as an adjective. In the Book of Jude, it is used both ways.

Jude 1:14-15 (The Book of the Gentiles)

“Behold, the Lord comes with ten thousand of His holy ones, to execute judgment on all and to convict all the ungodly [noun] of all their deeds of ungodliness that they have committed in such an ungodly way, and of all the harsh things that ungodly sinners have spoken against Him [i.e., Jesus].”

This underhanded tactic of not specifying the noun by name is exactly what was used in telling the catastrophic story of Sodom and Gomorrah. It was in fact, not humans but a legion of terrestrial Orgs in human disguise who occupied and inhabited the two immoral cities.

It just so happened that the number of their kind exceeded the number of humankind living in the two cities, and that consequently posed a problem for the neighboring human-populated cities. Let’s go all the way back and explore the origin of the demise of those two cities.

The Book of Light

Sodom and Gomorrah

When Abraham, originally named Abram, was first called by GOD, he was instructed to leave his dwelling place of Haran and move to the land of Canaan. So, he obediently packed all his belongings and journeyed to the new land with his wife Sarai and his nephew, Lot.

Genesis 13:2-12 (The Book of the Jews)

Now Abram was very rich in livestock, in silver, and in gold. And he journeyed on from the Negeb as far as Bethel to the place where his tent had been at the beginning, between Bethel and Ai, to the place where he had made an altar at the first. And there Abram called upon the name of The Lord.

And Lot, who went with Abram, also had flocks and herds and tents, so that the land could not support both of them dwelling together; for their possessions were so great that they could not dwell together, and there was strife between the herdsmen of Abram's livestock and the herdsmen of Lot's livestock. At that time the Canaanites and the Perizzites were dwelling in the land.

Then Abram said to Lot, "Let there be no strife between you and me, and between your herdsmen and my herdsmen, for we are kinsmen. Is not the whole land before you? Separate yourself from me. If you take the left hand, then I will go to the right, or if you take the right hand, then I will go to the left." And Lot lifted up his eyes and saw that the Jordan Valley was well watered everywhere like the garden of The Lord, like the land of Egypt, in the direction of Zoar. (This was before The Lord destroyed Sodom and Gomorrah.) So, Lot chose for himself all the Jordan Valley, and Lot journeyed east. Thus, they separated from each other. Abram settled in the land of Canaan, while Lot settled among the cities of the valley and moved his tent as far as Sodom.

Sodom and Gomorrah, along with the cities of Admah, Zeboiim, and Zoar, comprised the five "cities of the plain." Serving as the kings of the plain were: Lord Bera, who was king of Sodom; Lord Birsha, who was king of Gomorrah; Lord Shinab, who was king of Admah; Lord Shemeber, who was king of Zeboiim; and the unnamed king of Bela, also known as Zoar. For twelve long years, the five kings of the plain were under the strict control of Chedorlaomer, the tyrant king of the city of Elam, who was an especially ruthless Org. In the thirteenth year of servicing Chedorlaomer, the five kings of the plain joined forces to rebel against him. So, Chedorlaomer called on the assistance of three nearby Org allies: Lord Amraphel, the king of Shinar (Babylon); Lord Arioch, the king of Ellasar; and Lord Tidal, the king of Goiim. Those four kings made war with the five kings of the plain in the Valley of Siddim, in what is called the “Battle of Nine Kings.”

Genesis 14:1-4 (The Book of the Jews)

In the days of Amraphel king of Shinar, Arioch king of Ellasar, Chedorlaomer king of Elam, and Tidal king of Goiim, these kings made war with Bera king of Sodom, Birsha king of Gomorrah, Shinab king of Admah, Shemeber king of Zeboiim, and the king of Bela (that is, Zoar). And all these joined forces in the Valley of Siddim (that is, the Salt Sea). Twelve years they had served Chedorlaomer, but in the thirteenth year they rebelled.

The five kings of the plain put up a good fight against Chedorlaomer and his allies, but they lost the battle miserably.

Genesis 14:8-12 (The Book of the Jews)

Then the king of Sodom, the king of Gomorrah, the king of Admah, the king of Zeboiim, and the king of Bela (that is, Zoar) went out, and they joined battle in the Valley of Siddim with Chedorlaomer king of Elam, Tidal king of Goiim, Amraphel king of Shinar, and Arioch king of Ellasar, four kings against five. Now the Valley of Siddim was full of bitumen pits, and as the kings of Sodom and Gomorrah fled, some fell into them, and the rest fled to the hill country. So, the enemy took all the possessions of Sodom and Gomorrah, and all their provisions, and went their way. They also took Lot, the son of Abram’s brother, who was dwelling in Sodom, and his possessions.

From that point on, the two cities, Sodom and Gomorrah, were overtaken by the Wicked, that is to say, Orgs.

The Book of Light

Genesis 13:13 (The Book of the Jews)

Now the men of Sodom were wicked, great sinners against The Lord.

When Abraham (Abram) got word that his nephew, Lot, was taken as a prisoner of war during the Battle of Nine Kings, he gathered an army of 318 men from his camp and went to the city of Hobah to retrieve Lot. It was there, during the Battle of Hobah, that Abraham defeated the Org king, Chedorlaomer.

Genesis 14:13-16 (The Book of the Jews)

Then one who had escaped came and told Abram the Hebrew, who was living by the oaks of Mamre the Amorite, brother of Eshcol and of Aner. These were allies of Abram. When Abram heard that his kinsman had been taken captive, he led forth his trained men, born in his house, 318 of them, and went in pursuit as far as Dan. And he divided his forces against them by night, he and his servants, and defeated them and pursued them to Hobah, north of Damascus. Then he brought back all the possessions, and also brought back his kinsman Lot with his possessions, and the women and the people.

Lord Bera, the king of Sodom, was so grateful to Abraham for defeating Chedorlaomer that he offered Abraham all the reclaimed spoils of the war, but Abraham politely refused.

Genesis 14:21-24 (The Book of the Jews)

And the king of Sodom said to Abram, "Give me the persons, but take the goods for yourself." But Abram said to the king of Sodom, "I have lifted my hand to The Lord, God Most High, Possessor of Heaven and Earth, that I would not take a thread or a sandal strap or anything that is yours, lest you should say, 'I have made Abram rich.' I will take nothing but what the young men have eaten, and the share of the men who went with me.

Abraham passed the honor and accolades he refused from the king of Sodom on to his nephew, Lot, who was immediately promoted as a representative of King Bera. However, when he returned to his small family in Sodom, he quickly realized that the city was not the same. Nevertheless, he sat as a judge at the city gate.

The Book of Light

Let's check out the passage in the Old Testament that leads to the destruction of Sodom and Gomorrah, when GOD and two of HIS angels personally appear to Abraham in human disguise.

Genesis 18:20-33 (The Book of the Jews)

Then The Lord said, "Because the outcry against Sodom and Gomorrah is great and their sin is very grave, I will go down to see whether they have done altogether according to the outcry that has come to Me. And if not, I will know."

So, the men turned from there and went toward Sodom, but Abraham still stood before The Lord. Then Abraham drew near and said, "Will you indeed sweep away the Righteous with the Wicked? Suppose there are fifty Righteous within the city. Will you then sweep away the place and not spare it for the fifty Righteous who are in it? Far be it from You to do such a thing, to put the Righteous to death with the Wicked, so that the Righteous fare as the Wicked! Far be that from You! Shall not the JUDGE of all the Earth do what is just?" And The Lord said, "If I find at Sodom fifty Righteous in the city, I will spare the whole place for their sake."

Abraham answered and said, "Behold, I have undertaken to speak to The Lord, I who am but dust and ashes. Suppose five of the fifty Righteous are lacking. Will you destroy the whole city for lack of five?"

And HE said, "I will not destroy it if I find forty-five there."

Again, he spoke to HIM and said, "Suppose forty are found there."

HE answered, "For the sake of forty I will not do it."

Then he said, "Oh, let not The Lord be angry, and I will speak. Suppose thirty are found there."

HE answered, "I will not do it if I find thirty there."

He said, "Behold, I have undertaken to speak to The Lord. Suppose twenty are found there."

HE answered, "For the sake of twenty I will not destroy it."

Then he said, "Oh, let not The Lord be angry, and I will speak again but this once. Suppose ten are found there."

HE answered, "For the sake of ten I will not destroy it." And The Lord went His way, when HE had finished speaking to Abraham, and Abraham returned to his place.

The references to "the Righteous" and "the Wicked" are actually making a distinction between human beings and terrestrial Orgs. Replace every underlined use of the word Wicked

The Book of Light

above with the word Orgs and replace the underlined word Righteous with the word humans, and you will see that this passage tells a very different story.

When the Holy Bible refers to unrighteous humans, it calls them “sinners,” not “the Wicked.”

Matthew 9:13 (The Book of the Gentiles)

“For I [i.e., Jesus] came not to call the righteous, but sinners.”

Abraham only pleaded to GOD for the two cities because his nephew, his brother’s son, Lot, was settled in Sodom with his small family.

In retrospect, they were the only Righteous (humans) living among the Wicked (Orgs), so the two angels sent by GOD came to save them before destroying the city.

Genesis 19:1-15 (The Book of the Jews)

The two angels came to Sodom in the evening, and Lot was sitting in the gate of Sodom. When Lot saw them, he rose to meet them and bowed himself with his face to the earth and said, “My lords, please turn aside to your servant’s house and spend the night and wash your feet. Then you may rise up early and go on your way.”

They said, “No; we will spend the night in the town square.” But he pressed them strongly; so, they turned aside to him and entered his house. And he made them a feast and baked unleavened bread, and they ate.

But before they lay down, the men of the city, the men of Sodom, both young and old, all the people to the last man, surrounded the house. And they called to Lot, “Where are the men who came to you tonight? Bring them out to us, that we may know them.”

Lot went out to the men at the entrance, shut the door after him, and said, “I beg you, my brothers, do not act so wickedly. Behold, I have two daughters who have not known any man. Let me bring them out to you, and do to them as you please. Only do nothing to these men, for they have come under the shelter of my roof.”

But they said, “Stand back!” And they said, “This fellow came to sojourn, and he has become the judge! Now we will deal worse with you than with them.” Then they pressed hard against the man Lot, and drew near to break the door down. But the men reached out their hands and brought Lot into the house with them and shut the door. And they struck with blindness the men who were at the entrance of the house, both small and great, so that they wore themselves out groping for the door.

The Book of Light

Then the men said to Lot, “Have you anyone else here? Sons-in-law, sons, daughters, or anyone you have in the city, bring them out of the place. For we are about to destroy this place, because the outcry against its people has become great before The Lord, and The Lord has sent us to destroy it.”

So, Lot went out and said to his sons-in-law, who were to marry his daughters, “Up! Get out of this place, for The Lord is about to destroy the city.” But he seemed to his sons-in-law to be jesting.

As morning dawned, the angels urged Lot, saying, “Up! Take your wife and your two daughters who are here, lest you be swept away in the punishment of the city.”

Lot’s desperate act of offering his two virgin daughters to the barbaric men of the city is indicative of them not being normal human beings.

Genesis 19:6-8 (The Book of the Jews)

Lot went out to the men at the entrance, shut the door after him, and said, “I beg you, my brothers, do not act so wickedly. Behold, I have two daughters who have not known any man. Let me bring them out to you, and do to them as you please. Only do nothing to these men, for they have come under the shelter of my roof.”

Although prostitution is not condoned in the Old Testament of the Holy Bible, there is a rare exception noted in the Book of Leviticus.

Leviticus 19:29 (The Book of the Jews)

Do not profane your daughter by making her a prostitute, lest the land fall into prostitution and the land become full of depravity.

The land of Sodom became full of depravity. So, the two angels safely led Lot and his family out of the city and then instructed them to go up into the nearby hills for refuge.

The Book of Light

Genesis 19:16-17 (The Book of the Jews)

So, the men seized him and his wife and his two daughters by the hand, The Lord being merciful to him, and they brought him out and set him outside the city. And as they brought them out, one said, "Escape for your life. Do not look back or stop anywhere in the valley. Escape to the hills, lest you be swept away."

It is Lot's response to the angel's instruction that confirms that Sodom and Gomorrah were in fact infiltrated by evil Orgs. In most interpretations of this passage, the Orgs are obscurely referred to as "the disaster."

Genesis 19:18-19 (The Book of the Jews)

And Lot said to them, "Oh, no, my lords. Behold, your servant has found favor in your sight, and you have shown me great kindness in saving my life. But I cannot escape to the hills, lest the disaster overtake me and I die.

However, in the King James version of the Holy Bible, the Orgs are more precisely alluded to.

Genesis 19:18-19 (The King James Version)

And Lot said unto them, Oh, not so, my lord: Behold now, thy servant hath found grace in thy sight, and thou hast magnified thy mercy, which thou hast shewed unto me in saving my life; and I cannot escape to the mountain, lest some evil take me, and I die.

Lot was terrified of being captured and killed by terrestrial Orgs. So, he instead suggested escaping to the smallest of the five cities of the plain, where the inhabitants were actual humans.

The Book of Light

Genesis 19:20-22 (The Book of the Jews)

“Behold, this city is near enough to flee to, and it is a little one. Let me escape there—is it not a little one?—and my life will be saved!” He said to him, “Behold, I grant you this favor also, that I will not overthrow the city of which you have spoken. Escape there quickly, for I can do nothing till you arrive there.” Therefore, the name of the city was called Zoar.

At the end of it all, there were only four Righteous (humans) living in Sodom: Lot, his wife, and their two daughters. That simply was not enough to save the place.

Genesis 18:32-33 (The Book of the Jews)

“Oh, let not The Lord be angry, and I will speak again but this once. Suppose ten are found there.”
HE answered, “For the sake of ten I will not destroy it.” And The Lord went HIS way, when HE had finished speaking to Abraham, and Abraham returned to his place.

If this entire passage were referring to humankind, that would mean that innocent women and children who lived in those cities would be unfairly subjected to the same fate as the Wicked, all of whom are mentioned to be men, just as the fallen rebellious Cherubim were all male.

Genesis 19:4-8 (The Book of the Jews)

The men of the city, the men of Sodom, both young and old, all the people to the last man, surrounded the house. And they called to Lot, “Where are the men who came to you tonight? Bring them out to us, that we may know them.” Lot went out to the men at the entrance, shut the door after him, and said, “I beg you, my brothers, do not act so wickedly.”

What city in history have you ever heard that only consisted of men, with no women and children? These lewd and vile male creatures were not human, and they were not of GOD.

This discrepancy is addressed in the Book of Luke in the New Testament.

The Book of Light

Luke 17:28-29 (The Book of the Gentiles)

Just as it was in the days of Lot—they were eating and drinking, buying and selling, planting and building, but on the day when Lot went out from Sodom, fire and sulfur rained from Heaven and destroyed them all.

As you can see, homosexual acts or any other immoral sexual behavior is not necessarily mentioned in the long list of things they were doing that led up to the destruction of Sodom. That is because who actually lived in the two cities were lawless, evil Orgs, who resisted GOD's authority and defiled sensuality. In the process, they corrupted with their immoral ways the weak-minded humans who lived in the surrounding cities.

2 Peter 2:7-10 (The Book of the Gentiles)

HE rescued righteous Lot, greatly distressed by the sensual conduct of the Wicked (for as that righteous man lived among them day after day, he was tormenting his righteous soul over their lawless deeds that he saw and heard); then The Lord knows how to rescue the godly from trials, and to keep the unrighteous under punishment until the day of judgment, and especially those who indulge in the lust of defiling passion and despise authority.

This is what eventually led to the destruction of the two cities.

Genesis 19:23-26 (The Book of the Jews)

The Sun had risen on the Earth when Lot came to Zoar. Then The Lord rained on Sodom and Gomorrah sulfur and fire from The Lord out of Heaven. And HE overthrew those cities, and all the valley, and all the inhabitants of the cities, and what grew on the ground. But Lot's wife, behind him, looked back, and she became a pillar of salt.

So, GOD made an example of them to show the rest of their kind, as a warning.

The Book of Light

2 Peter 2:6 (The Book of the Gentiles)

By turning the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah to ashes, HE condemned them to extinction, making them an example of what is going to happen to the ungodly.

This sneaky reference to Orgs is used again and again throughout the Old Testament of the Holy Bible.

Psalms 1:1-6 (The Book of the Jews)

Blessed is the man who walks not in the counsel of the Wicked, nor stands in the way of sinners, nor sits in the seat of scoffers; but his delight is in the law of the Lord, and on His law, he meditates day and night. He is like a tree planted by streams of water that yields its fruit in its season, and its leaf does not wither. In all that he does, he prospers.

The Wicked are not so, but are like chaff that the wind drives away. Therefore, the Wicked will not stand in the judgment, nor sinners in the congregation of the Righteous; for The LORD knows the way of the Righteous, but the way of the Wicked will perish.

Go back and reread this passage above and again replace every underlined mention of Wicked with Orgs and replace Righteous with Humans. You will once again see that it tells a very different story.

It is critical to realize that, like the nature of their ringleader, Satan, the nature of the Orgs also did not change. They were never stripped of their angelic powers nor ever turned mortal after they were expelled from Heaven. Thus, Enoch refers to them as still having the capability to fly around ceaselessly over the bottomless.

I will give you a minute to take all that in.

The Book of Light

Shapeshifters

The Orgs are shapeshifters that typically acquire their form and appearance by assuming the identity of an existing person, of whom they are now a clone. In this process, the victim expires. I warned you that we have barely covered just how supernatural this world we live in really is.

Human cloning is the creating of a genetically identical copy of a human. In biology, the term is generally used to refer to artificial human cloning, which is the reproduction of human cells and tissues in a scientific lab. However, the process does not actually require a laboratory at all, and never has.

Let's define shapeshifter and see how the dictionary folks handle this definition.

shape-shifter (noun): (chiefly in fiction) a person or being with the ability to change its physical form at will.

What I get from this definition is that shapeshifters mainly exist in fiction, but not always. Where are they the rest of the time? Obviously, in real life.

Use your God-given instincts, people, because I'm telling you that these dictionary folks seem to know a whole lot more than they are letting on. They go on record specifically saying that a shapeshifter is a person or a being, without indicating what that being might be. Who else is being acknowledged by the dictionary folks?

It's time to wake up, my fellow humans. For the ones among you who think you are already awake, it's time to really wake up. If we pay close attention to the animal kingdom, the proof of shapeshifting is hinted through the camouflaging aspect of the ever-changing chameleon.

Do your own research. Google the words shapeshifting god(s) and see what comes up. These words don't just exist for laughs and giggles, and the dictionary folks wouldn't so readily embrace them without a bogus disclaimer.

The Book of Light

Shapeshifting is also mentioned in the Book of Enoch and the Holy Bible, where it is heavily suggested that Holy Angels are capable of shapeshifting, especially during missions on which they have to appear to one or more human beings.

In the following passage, Enoch talks about a mystical place in Heaven that he beholds with sheer excitement.

Excerpt from the First Book of Enoch

“They took and brought me to a place in which those who were there were like flaming fire, and when they wished, they appeared as men.”

In the Book of Daniel, the prophet stumbles across a shapeshifted angel after actively seeking out someone who can interpret one of his visions.

Daniel 8:15 (The Book of the Jews)

When I, Daniel, had seen the vision, I sought to understand it. And behold, there stood before me one having the appearance of a man.

There are two specific shapeshifting examples depicted in the Holy Bible that I want to elaborate on. They are nowhere near as obvious as in Enoch’s interpretation, but they make the point very clear, nonetheless. One example portrays “the angel of the LORD” as a compelling man; the other depicts GOD HIMSELF as a priestly king under the alias Melchizedek.

The first example again is subtly implied in the Book of Judges of the Holy Bible, when the angel of the LORD appears to Samson’s parents, Manoah and his wife, to announce the arrival of their future son.

This is a classic case of having to read between the lines. So, let’s take another look at this passage in its entirety.

Judges 13:2-21 (The Book of the Jews)

There was a certain man of Zorah, of the tribe of the Danites, whose name was Manoah. And his wife was barren and had no children. And the angel of The LORD appeared to the woman and said to her, “Behold, you are barren and have not borne children, but you shall conceive and bear a son. Therefore, be careful and drink no wine or strong drink, and eat nothing unclean, for behold, you shall conceive and bear a son. No razor shall come upon his head, for the child shall be a Nazirite to God from the womb, and he shall begin to save Israel from the hand of the Philistines.”

Then the woman came and told her husband, “A man of GOD came to me, and His appearance was like the appearance of the angel of GOD, very awesome. I did not ask Him where He was from, and He did not tell me His name, but He said to me, ‘Behold, you shall conceive and bear a son. So then drink no wine or strong drink, and eat nothing unclean, for the child shall be a Nazirite to GOD from the womb to the day of his death.’”

Then Manoah prayed to The LORD and said, “O Lord, please let the man of GOD whom you sent come again to us and teach us what we are to do with the child who will be born.” And God listened to the voice of Manoah, and the angel of GOD came again to the woman as she sat in the field. But Manoah her husband was not with her. So, the woman ran quickly and told her husband, “Behold, the man who came to me the other day has appeared to me.” And Manoah arose and went after his wife and came to the man and said to Him, “Are you the man who spoke to this woman?” And He said, “I am.” And Manoah said, “Now when Your words come true, what is to be the child’s manner of life, and what is his mission?” And the angel of the LORD said to Manoah, “Of all that I said to the woman let her be careful. She may not eat of anything that comes from the vine, neither let her drink wine or strong drink, or eat any unclean thing. All that I commanded her let her observe.”

Manoah said to the angel of The LORD, “Please let us detain You and prepare a young goat for You.” And the angel of The LORD said to Manoah, “If you detain Me, I will not eat of your food. But if you prepare a burnt offering, then offer it to The LORD.” (For Manoah did not know that He was the angel of The LORD.) And Manoah said to the angel of The LORD, “What is Your name, so that, when Your words come true, we may honor You?” And the angel of The LORD said to him, “Why do you ask My name, is seeing it wonderful?” So, Manoah took the young goat with the grain offering, and offered it on the rock to the LORD, to the ONE who works wonders, and Manoah and his wife were watching. And when the flame went up toward Heaven from the altar, the angel of The LORD went up in the flame of the altar. Now Manoah and his wife were watching, and they fell on their faces to the ground.

The angel of The LORD appeared no more to Manoah and to his wife. Then

The Book of Light

Manoah knew that He was the angel of The LORD.

By today's standards in writing, this passage is afflicted with what is known as being verbose or wordy, using more words than are needed to get a point across. However, since there were no science fiction books or movies around at that time, the word shapeshifting was nonexistent to the ancient author who was writing this account. So, he gets a pass for indecisively toggling back and forth between the two nouns angel and man to demonstrate his point.

Judges 13:6 (The Book of the Jews)

Then the woman came and told her husband, "A man of GOD came to me, and His appearance was like the appearance of the angel of GOD, very awesome.

So, the "angel of GOD" here was clearly very convincing as a "man of GOD," but there must have been something indicative of Him being the angel for her to say this line. Nevertheless, neither one of them knew for sure that the man was actually the angel until the very last sentence of the following passage:

Judges 13:20-21 (The Book of the Jews)

And when the flame went up toward Heaven from the altar, the angel of The LORD went up in the flame of the altar. Now Manoah and his wife were watching, and they fell on their faces to the ground.

The angel of The LORD appeared no more to Manoah and to his wife. Then Manoah knew that He was the angel of The LORD.

So, Manoah and his wife clearly were unaware of this man being the angel until the very end. This is a sure example of shapeshifting occurring in the Holy Bible by a holy angel.

The second example is even more difficult to identify because we only get introduced to this mysterious character named Melchizedek after the shapeshifting has already occurred.

The Book of Light

Melchizedek is an odd and out-of-place character because he is identified as both a king and a priest—an unheard of notion in those days, because a man could either be one or the other, never both. After Abraham (Abram) conquered and defeated the tyrant king Chedorlaomer at the Battle of Hobah, he is blessed by the priest/king Melchizedek.

Genesis 14:17-20 (The Book of the Jews)

After his return from the defeat of Chedorlaomer and the Kings who were with him, the King of Sodom went out to meet him [i.e., Abraham] at the Valley of Shaveh (that is, the King's Valley). And Melchizedek, King of Salem, brought out bread and wine. (He was a priest of GOD Most-High.) And he blessed him and said, "Blessed be Abram by GOD Most-High, Possessor of Heaven and Earth; and blessed be GOD Most-High, who has delivered your enemies into your hand!"

Most scholars believe Melchizedek to be God the Son in human form, never considering that He could actually be an incarnation of GOD The FATHER. GOD was personally interactive with Abraham after HE summoned him. This is explained to Moses in the Book of Exodus.

Exodus 6:2-4 (The Book of the Jews)

God spoke to Moses and said to him, "I am The Lord. I appeared to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, as GOD Almighty, but by My name The Lord, I did not make Myself known to them.

The red flag indicating that Melchizedek is actually GOD in disguise is that there is no actual kingdom named Salem in the Holy Bible before or after this passage. The name Salem means "peace" or "at peace." So, HE is in fact the king of Peace, with HIS Son Jesus being the prince of Peace.

The Book of Light

Hebrews 7:1-3 (The Book of the Gentiles)

Melchizedek, king of Salem, priest of the Most-High GOD, met Abraham returning from the slaughter of the kings and blessed him, and to HIM Abraham apportioned a tenth part of everything.

HE is first, by translation of HIS name, king of righteousness, and then HE is also king of Salem, that is, king of peace. HE is without father or mother or genealogy, having neither beginning of days nor end of life, but resembling the Son of God, HE continues a priest forever.

Isaiah 9:6 (The Book of the Jews)

For to us a child is born, to us a Son is given; and the government shall be upon His shoulder, and His name shall be called Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace.

This passage from the Book of Isaiah in the Old Testament is clearly depicting Jesus before He was born. In the second and final mention of Melchizedek in the Old Testament, a Psalm of David written in the Book of Psalms once again talks about Jesus before His birth.

Psalms 110:1-6 (The Book of the Jews)

The LORD says to my Lord: “Sit at MY right hand, until I make Your enemies Your footstool.”

The LORD sends forth from Zion Your mighty scepter. Rule in the midst of Your enemies! Your people will offer themselves freely on the day of Your power, in holy garments; from the womb of the morning, the dew of Your youth will be Yours. The LORD has sworn and will not change HIS mind, “You are a priest forever after the order of Melchizedek.”

The Lord is at YOUR right hand; He will shatter kings on the day of His wrath. He will execute judgment among the nations, filling them with corpses; He will shatter chiefs over the wide Earth.

It is very important to understand anthropomorphism because shapeshifting is now being used maliciously by the Orgs in our societies. They have taken their GOD-given magic and

The Book of Light

retooled it for the purpose of evil (#Birth of Black Magic).

Exodus 7:10-12 (The Book of the Jews)

Aaron cast down his staff before Pharaoh and his servants, and it became a serpent. Then Pharaoh summoned the wise men and the sorcerers, and they, the magicians of Egypt, also did the same by their secret arts. For each man cast down his staff, and they became serpents. But Aaron's staff swallowed up their staffs.

Our knowing of Orgs flying around since the beginning of time sheds a whole new light on the UFO phenomenon. We will get more into that a little later on in this chapter. We have to stay focused on one matter at a time to avoid confusion. So, consider this yet another seed being planted.

Speaking of planting seeds, I concluded in Chapter 1 that the term historic myth applies, among other things, to Greco-Roman mythology. It is now time to explore how. I think I made you wait long enough.

So, let's just jump right into it.

Gods Among Men

We all know the different names given to “Lucifer” after his fall: Satan, the Devil, the dragon, and the ancient serpent, among many others.

What we don't know—or I should say haven't really acknowledged—are some of the names given to the rebellious Cherubim that accompanied him.

Yes, they've been called “fallen angels” in a figurative sense because they have all fallen out of favor with GOD and thus have fallen from grace. Outside of that, they also have been given other names and titles. Undoubtedly, you have heard every single one of them mentioned and written out before, but you just haven't registered them by putting 1 and 2 together.

Allow me to list off a few of the categorical names associated with the fallen rebellious Cherubim angels cast down with the dragon: celestial beings, deities, divine beings, divinities, eternal, immortals, mythological gods and supreme beings—to which I now add the name Orgs.

Yes, that would include Zeus, Hera, Aphrodite, Ares, Hades, Poseidon, etc. They are all spawned from the fallen son of God—minions of the Evil One—gods over man.

Take that in and let it resonate for a bit.

Quite a few different Biblical passages make reference to the existence of these gods. Let's check out a few.

Acts 14:13 (The Book of the Gentiles)

And the priest of Zeus, whose temple was at the entrance to the city, brought oxen and garlands to the gates and wanted to offer sacrifice with the crowds.

Psalms 86:8 (The Book of the Jews)

There is none like You among the gods, O LORD, nor are there any works like YOURS.

1 Corinthians 8:5 (The Book of the Gentiles)

For although there may be so-called gods in Heaven or on Earth—as indeed there are many “gods” and many “lords.”

Deuteronomy 10:17 (The Book of the Jews)

For the Lord your God is God of gods and Lord of lords, the great, the mighty, and the awesome God, who is not partial and takes no bribe.

We now recognize these celestial Orgs as gods and goddesses, but the ancient Hebrews referred to them as Baals and Ashtaroth.

The Book of Light

1 Samuel 7:3-17 (The Book of the Jews)

And Samuel said to all the house of Israel, “If you are returning to The Lord with all your heart, then put away the foreign gods and the Ashtaroth from among you and direct your heart to The Lord and serve Him only, and He will deliver you out of the hand of the Philistines.” So, the people of Israel put away the Baals and the Ashtaroth, and they served The Lord only.

So, where are the Orgs now? Where have they been hiding? You may want to sit down on this one if you’re not already sitting, because this one’s a doozy.

You ready? Here it goes! They hide in plain sight.

Revelation 12:9 (The Book of the Gentiles)

And the great dragon was thrown down, that ancient serpent, who is called the devil and Satan, the deceiver of the whole world—he was thrown down to the Earth, and his angels were thrown down with him.

What do you think this passage means? I told you they were not cast into any Hell—not yet anyway. That’s coming. For now, we have been sharing the world with them. They have acclimated and settled right here on Earth with us, banished and unwelcome back in Heaven.

They have had several thousand years to perfect and fine-tune their adjustment here on the planet. So, they are extremely convincing. They can shapeshift at will because they have retained all their divine powers—yes, magic.

They look like people, but they are not human.

The short Book of Jude and the second chapter of 2 Peter in the New Testament are entirely about Orgs and the judgment to fall upon them. Jude calls them the ungodly people, instead of the Wicked, as in the Old Testament.

The Book of Light

Jude 1:4 (The Book of the Gentiles)

For certain people have crept in unnoticed who long ago were designated for this condemnation, ungodly people, who pervert the grace of our GOD into sensuality and deny our only Master and Lord, Jesus Christ.

This kind of indirect mention of Orgs is specifically why I began this book by stressing the language of words, because the words in the Holy Bible can be very telling and informative without revealing the whole truth. I can tell you that Orgs are 100 percent responsible for the Holy Bible being as muddled and conflicted as it has become ever since the Book of Enoch was removed from it.

Forget all confusion from the old-fashioned language, such as “cast out of Heaven,” and “thrown down onto Earth.” In essence, the Devil and his Orgs are immortals who were cursed to live among mortals—that is, fallen angels condemned to live among humans. That is the plain and simple modern-day translation.

This is reminiscent of Gru and his minions in the 2010 movie Despicable Me.

The Orgs have helped to shape our civilization and influence our thoughts, especially our digressions and iniquities. They are the lurking sins of the world.

2 Peter 2:13-15 (The Book of the Gentiles)

They are blots and blemishes, reveling in their deceptions, while they feast with you. They have eyes full of adultery, insatiable for sin. They entice unsteady souls. They have hearts trained in greed. Accursed children! Forsaking the right way, they have gone astray.

They were always here from day one, manipulating and deceiving the entire world.

The Book of Light

They were here when God created Adam and Eve. They were here when Moses parted the Red Sea and was given the Ten Commandments. They were even here when GOD sent the Great Flood to wipe out a portion of the world and afterwards. Yes, they were here.

They were here to witness the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus Christ, because they were the ones who physically nailed Him to the cross.

Revelation 1:7 (The Book of the Gentiles)

He is coming with the clouds, and every eye will see Him, even those who pierced Him.

The Orgs told their own histories and stories through the Iliad and the Odyssey, using the mysterious name Homer. They were right there.

Acts 17:28 (The Book of the Gentiles)

In Him [i.e., Jesus] we live and move and have our being; as even some of your own poets have said, "For we are indeed His offspring."

The Orgs had a hand or two in building the Great Pyramid of Giza in Egypt; the Great Wall of China; the Colosseum in Rome; Machu Picchu in Peru; the Taj Mahal in India; the Christ the Redeemer statue in Rio de Janeiro; and the Petra in Jordan. The Orgs were there for all of them.

They were the masterminds behind the forging of Excalibur, the legendary sword of King Arthur. They orchestrated and witnessed the entire thing, disguised as the wizard Merlin. They were there.

They provoked the sixteenth-century Protestant Reformation upheaval, because they were there.

The Book of Light

They launched and perpetuated the sixteenth-century slave trade of the transatlantic, because they were there.

They have always had a vendetta against the Jews, which led to their brutal execution during the Holocaust. They were definitely there.

They were present during the Renaissance, the Industrial Revolution, the American Revolution, the French Revolution, World Wars I and II, the medical revolution, and the Space Age, all the way through to our current-day technological Information Age. They were there then, and they are still here now.

They currently hide as the elites—the superwealthy and powerful men who run everything—but still very much gods among mere hard working-class people.

They oversee every aspect of the entertainment industry in order to control what we see and hear.

Jeremiah 5:26-28 (The Book of the Jews)

For wicked men are found among MY people; they lurk like fowlers lying in wait. They set a trap; they catch men. Like a cage full of birds, their houses are full of deceit; therefore, they have become great and rich; they have grown fat and sleek. They know no bounds in deeds of evil.

They are the world leaders, the authorities, the U.S. electoral college, the Nazis, the Secret Societies, the Freemasons, the Mafia, and the Illuminati.

Ephesians 6:12 (The Book of the Gentiles)

For we do not wrestle against flesh and blood, but against the Rulers, against the Authorities, against the Cosmic Powers over this present darkness, against the Spiritual Forces of Evil in the Heavenly places.

The Book of Light

Orgs even serve as clergymen in the Christian churches, particularly in the Roman Catholic Church.

Matthew 7:15 (The Book of the Gentiles)

Beware of false prophets, who come to you in sheep's clothing but inwardly are ravenous wolves.

The last two quotes demonstrate that we are not in control of anything in this world, we never have been, and we never will be.

Like their ringleader, Satan, Orgs are masters of deception. They infiltrate to blend in.

Jude 1:12-13 (The Book of the Gentiles)

These are hidden reefs at your love feasts, as they feast with you without fear, shepherds feeding themselves; waterless clouds, swept along by winds; fruitless trees in late autumn, twice dead, uprooted; wild waves of the Sea, casting up the foam of their own shame; wandering Stars, for whom the gloom of utter darkness has been reserved forever.

Let's define the word infiltrate.

infiltrate (verb): enter or gain access to (an organization, place, etc.) surreptitiously and gradually, especially in order to acquire secret information. (“other areas of the establishment were infiltrated by fascists”)

infiltrate (verb): permeate or become a part of (something) by infiltration. (“computing has infiltrated most professions now”)

It's time to wake up, people! There's no more sugar coating moving forward from this point. Because if you can't see it at this point, then you just don't want to.

This entire world is shrouded in “hushed secrets” and “unsolved mysteries” because the Orgs, who are orchestrating this grand scheme of deception, stay close by at all times to assure that the mysteries remain secret.

Have no worries, though, because GOD never forsakes. HE made it very clear that all things secret will be uncovered, and the truth will eventually come forth. We have all heard that old saying, “What’s done in the dark will come to light.” That is how GOD operates.

Luke 8:17 (The Book of the Gentiles)

For nothing is hidden that will not be made manifest, nor is anything secret that will not be known and come to light.

Luke 12:2-3 (The Book of the Gentiles)

Nothing is covered up that will not be revealed, or hidden that will not be known. Therefore, whatever you have said in the dark shall be heard in the light, and what you have whispered in private rooms shall be proclaimed on the housetops.

Both of these sayings from the Book of Luke are words spoken directly by Jesus Christ Himself. As much as those words pertain to our lives as a whole, I cannot shake the feeling that at the time when Jesus spoke them, He was in fact alluding to this very moment, right here and now, an unsung prophesy about Orgs to be fulfilled.

Make no mistake about it, these immortal beings are plentiful on the face of the Earth, reproducing without the probability of death. Let’s just say that there are just as many of their kind in existence in the world today as there are human beings, if not more.

This is heavily suggested in the Holy Bible.

1 Corinthians 15:39 (The Book of the Gentiles)

Not all flesh is the same, but there is one kind for humans, another for animals, another for birds, and another for fish.

Above the Bottomless

Let's go back to the UFO seed I planted earlier. It's time to explore what UFOs actually are, and at the same time to answer the nagging question of whether or not there is life on any other planet other than Earth.

UFO stands for "Unidentified Flying Objects," an aerial phenomenon mostly seen and reported here in the United States of America. Everyone is under the impression that these disclike saucers belong to an advanced civilization from another planet beyond the stars. Aliens, right?

Let's see what the dictionary folks have to say about aliens and extraterrestrials.

alien (noun): a hypothetical or fictional being from another world. ("an alien from outer space")

extraterrestrial (noun): a hypothetical or fictional being from outer space, especially an intelligent one.

We are finally getting around to some definitions acknowledging the fictitious, false, and make-believe. You see, the dictionary folks are on their jobs. Just from these definitions alone, it is safe to include aliens and extraterrestrials as bogus.

So, if aliens and extraterrestrials are not real, who or what is behind all of the UFO sightings and bright lights in the sky? The answer is actually extraterrestrials.

extraterrestrial (adjective): of or from outside the Earth or its atmosphere. ("searches for extraterrestrial intelligence")

As an adjective, the word extraterrestrial is a whole different story.

Let's define fallen angel while we're at it.

The Book of Light

fallen angel (noun): (in Christian, Jewish, and Muslim traditions) an angel who rebelled against God and was cast out of Heaven. (“the fallen angel Lucifer”)

Isn't it odd how one-third of the Cherubim armies got thrown out of Heaven, along with Lucifer, but nowadays he alone gets blamed for every mischievous act? It's as if the rebellious Cherubim all just miraculously fell off the grid. I assure you that, after their fall, they did not turn over a new leaf and become humanitarians. Their fall from Heaven is mentioned very clearly in the Book of Enoch.

Excerpt from the Second Book of Enoch

“I hurled him [i.e., Satan] out from the height, together with his angels. And he was flying around in the air ceaselessly, above the bottomless.”

Their fall is also described by John of Patmos in the Book of Revelation.

Revelation 12:9 (The Book of the Gentiles)

He [i.e., Satan] was thrown down to the Earth, and his angels were thrown down with him.

So, the question now becomes, where did the dragon and his fallen Cherubim go?

The Realm of Evil

Let's do some major reassessment here. If GOD's throne sits on the highest level of Heaven, which is the tenth level, then Lucifer, who resided on the sixth level, must have been banished to the outside of the sixth level—or as a friend of mine once joked, he was permanently locked away in Heaven's basement.

The Book of Light

Genesis 1:6 -7 (The Book of the Jews)

And God said, “Let there be an expanse in the midst of the waters, and let it separate the waters from the waters.” And God made the expanse and separated the waters that were under the expanse from the waters that were above the expanse. And it was so.

I’m sure you’re asking, What in the world is an expanse? Some other translations use the word firmament.

Let’s define the word expanse.

expanse (noun): an area of something, typically land or sea, presenting a wide continuous surface. (“the green expanse of the forest”)

In this case, it is the open black expanse of outer space. This is a clear example of a word of antiquity in full effect. Considering that the writer, who happened to be Moses, didn’t have the science and knowledge we have today, he didn’t have a word to specify “outer space.” So, this word expanse was the best he had in his arsenal to use.

How can I be so sure that this is referring to outer space, you ask? The scriptures themselves give significant clues.

Genesis 1:16-17 (The Book of the Jews)

And God made the two great lights—the greater light to rule the day and the lesser light to rule the night—and the Stars. And God set them in the expanse of the Heavens to give light on the Earth.

There you have it! Take notice of the word Heavens, in plural form, being used here, indicating that there are several levels of Heaven—in fact, ten levels, as Enoch indicated.

The Book of Light

Already, you can see how his ledgers are bringing clarity to the texts of the Holy Bible.

The words expanse or firmament, in other translations, are used interchangeably in the Holy Bible, to refer both to the open blue sky (the first level of the Heavens) and the open black space (the second level of the Heavens).

Let's define the word Heaven.

Heaven (noun): a place regarded in various religions as the abode of God (or the gods) and the angels, and of the good after death, often traditionally depicted as being above the sky.

Heaven (noun): the sky, especially perceived as a vault in which the sun, moon, stars, and planets are situated.

The word expanse is used quite often in Genesis. Any avid reader or movie buff can tell you that when a scene is brought to the forefront, it will eventually play a significant role down the line, as the story unfolds. The same rule applies in this case.

Genesis 1: 6-8 (The Book of the Jews)

And God said, "Let there be an expanse in the midst of the waters, and let it separate the waters from the waters." And God made the expanse and separated the waters that were under the expanse from the waters that were above the expanse. And it was so. And God called the expanse Heaven.

The space separating Heaven from Earth just happens to be called "Space" or "Outer Space" (Heaven's basement). It also serves as a good neutral territory for expelling discarded outcasts—a place where they can fly around ceaselessly.

If you're not making the connection, let me spell it out for you. Lucifer and the entire division of rebellious angels under his authority were expelled into outer space, in paranormal darkness, where they have lived ever since the second day of creation.

The Book of Light

This invaluable piece of information can only be determined from the Book of Enoch after Enoch recounts reaching the second level of the Heavens with the two angels, Samoila and Raguila.

Excerpt from the Second Book of Enoch

Those Men picked me up and brought me up to the Second Heaven. They showed me, and I saw a darkness greater than earthly darkness. There, I perceived prisoners under guard, hanging up, waiting for the measureless judgment.

Those angels had the appearance of darkness itself, more than earthly darkness. Unceasingly they made weeping, all the day long. I said to the Men, who were with me, "Why are these ones being tormented unceasingly?" Those Men answered me, "These are those, who turned away from The LORD, who did not obey The LORD's commandments, but of their own will, plotted together and turned away with their prince and with those who are under restraint in the fifth Heaven."

Outer Space, the second level of the Heavens, is in fact the dark Realm of Evil. Has it ever dawned on you that, as bright as the Sun is, not even its luminescence can lift the malevolent paranormal darkness of space? With the Sun blazing right in its midst, outer space should be visually blinding, but yet it is not.

Let me put in perspective for you the kind of paranormal and sinister darkness that exists in outer space. Imagine that the electricity goes out in your neighborhood at midnight, and the same paranormal darkness that cloaks outer space intrusively invades the interior of your home. You strike the last match you happened to have in your cupboard and hear it ignite, but this evil darkness won't allow you to see the flame. So, then you blindly feel around in the sinister dark to put brand new batteries in the emergency flashlight you hardly ever use, only to realize that the beam of light it emits also does nothing to lift this kind of sinister darkness inside your home. However, when you step outside of your house, you realize that the match and the flashlight have been working just fine. That's the kind of supernatural darkness that comprises space.

The notion of the fallen Cherubim being expelled into outer space instead of Hell is even confirmed in the Holy Bible. In the Book of 2 Peter, the author complains about how he wished the fallen angels were cast into Hell and restrained by chains in their gloomy darkness.

2 Peter 2:4 (The Book of the Gentiles)

For if GOD did not spare angels when they sinned, but cast them into hell and committed them to chains of gloomy darkness to be kept until the judgment.

In the Book of Ephesians, the fallen Cherubim (who are Orgs) are referred to as the Cosmic Powers in Heavenly places.

Ephesians 6:12 (The Book of the Gentiles)

For we do not wrestle against flesh and blood, but against the Rulers, against the Authorities, against the Cosmic Powers over this present darkness, against the Spiritual Forces of Evil in the Heavenly places.

It is of the utmost importance to understand that when Lucifer and his band of rebellious angels got cast down from Heaven, they were never locked away or confined anywhere. I want that to be very clear.

Orgs were left flying around ceaselessly in the evil darkness of outer space, as GOD-condemned creatures. They travel through space at the velocity of a comet, emitting light so bright in the process that they can actually appear as a shooting star in the night sky.

But if they wanted to build a sophisticated spacecraft of sorts, to travel stylishly in groups, they would have unlimited unworldly extraterrestrial technology at their disposal, being that they originated in outer space.

The Book of Light

The Book of Ezekiel in the Old Testament is much more revealing than you know.

Ezekiel 1:4-5 (The Book of the Jews)

As I looked, behold, a stormy wind came out of the north, and a great cloud, with brightness around it, and fire flashing forth continually, and in the midst of the fire, as it were gleaming metal. And from the midst of it came the likeness of four living creatures.

This passage pretty much describes the landing of a gleaming metallic aircraft with flashing lights and all, descending from the north.

I kid you not when I say that the entire first chapter of the Book of Ezekiel is dedicated to the living creatures with a human likeness—namely, Orgs.

Take notice that in chapter 1 of the Book of Ezekiel, Orgs are called living creatures with a human likeness. However, chapter 10 recaps and describes the same scenario, this time calling them Cherubim.

The ancient authors had an interesting way of switching the name of the nouns in their stories, usually to stress a point.

Let's take a look at how they are referred to in chapter 1 of the Book of Ezekiel.

Ezekiel 1:14-19 (The Book of the Jews, King James Version)

And the living creatures ran and returned as the appearance of a flash of lightning. Now as I beheld the living creatures, behold one wheel upon the Earth by the living creatures, with his four faces.

The appearance of the wheels and their work was like unto the colour of a beryl: and they four had one likeness: and their appearance and their work was as it were a wheel in the middle of a wheel. When they went, they went upon their four sides: and they turned not when they went. As for their rings, they were so high that they were dreadful; and their rings were full of eyes round about them four.

And when the living creatures went, the wheels went by them: and when the living creatures were lifted up from the Earth, the wheels were lifted up.

The Book of Light

I had to use the King James version of the Holy Bible for this passage because if anyone is familiar with the DC Comics superhero the Flash, you could clearly see where the inspiration for character Barry Allen came from.

Now let's see how Orgs are referred to in chapter 10 of the Book of Ezekiel.

Ezekiel 10:9-13 (The Book of the Jews)

And I looked, and behold, there were four wheels beside the Cherubim, one beside each Cherub, and the appearance of the wheels was like sparkling beryl. And as for their appearance, the four had the same likeness, as if a wheel were within a wheel. When they went, they went in any of their four directions without turning as they went, but in whatever direction the front wheel faced, the others followed without turning as they went. And their whole body, their rims, and their spokes, their wings, and the wheels were full of eyes all around—the wheels that the four of them had. As for the wheels, they were called in my hearing “the whirling wheels.”

This is a passage from the Holy Bible referring to the Orgs' "flying saucer" as "the whirling wheels full of eyes all around." That's probably what the flashing lights around this vessel looked like to the ancient author of that time.

The Book of Enoch was rejected and excluded from the Holy Bible by the Jews, mainly because it contains prophecies pertaining to Christ, but also because it demonstrates just how fallible some of GOD's angels are, especially the wicked and ungodly fallen ones who are hiding among us, afraid of having their cover blown.

Here is a passage in the New Testament that refers to the Orgs, while also vindicating the Book of Enoch.

The Book of Light

Jude 1:14 (The Book of the Gentiles)

It was also about these [i.e., Orgs] that Enoch, the seventh from Adam, prophesied, saying, “Behold, the Lord comes with ten thousands of His Holy Ones, to execute judgment on all and to convict all the ungodly of all their deeds of ungodliness that they have committed in such an ungodly way.

The Orgs work around the clock, ensuring that they discard any and all incriminating evidence that even slightly points to their existence. You will see that many of the removed texts from the Holy Bible either pertain directly to the Orgs or to the repercussions of their mischief.

Remember that the Orgs are cleverly called “the wicked” in the Old Testament and “the ungodly” in the New Testament.

If you could clearly see through spiritual eyes everything that is going on around you every single day, you would be terrified to ever leave the safety of your home.

The true supernatural nature of this world is about to be exposed and unleashed in the very near future, and you must not be caught off guard.

The presiding Orgs in Hollywood have done a fine job of priming and grooming us with enough science fiction and superhero films to amply desensitize most of us for what is about to come.

But have no fear, and know that the Orgs have no real authority over GOD’s people. Otherwise, we all would already be destroyed.

Luke 12:4-7 (The Book of the Gentiles)

Do not fear those who kill the body, and after that have nothing more that they can do. But I will warn you whom to fear: fear HIM who, after HE has killed, has authority to cast into Hell. Yes, I tell you, fear HIM! Are not five sparrows sold for two pennies? And not one of them is forgotten before GOD. Why, even the hairs of your head are all numbered. Fear not; you are of more value than many sparrows.

The Book of Light

GOD's Holy Cherubim Angel-Warriors are also on post twenty-four hours, seven days a week, keeping the sinister Orgs at bay.

These Orgs may be powerful and God-like in their own right, but they are not GOD.

Initially, after their fall from grace, the Orgs were on par with Satan, their ringleader. But it did not take long before that affiliation quickly started to deteriorate into complete madness and chaos—one might even say downright anarchy.

Orgs may bask in the glory of their current earthly status for now, but Jesus knows that they yearn deep down inside to resume their original place and position.

He even ranted and preached directly at them, while He was on Earth.

Luke 13:24-28 (The Book of the Gentiles)

Many, I tell you, will seek to enter and will not be able. When once THE MASTER OF THE HOUSE has risen and shut the door, and you begin to stand outside and to knock at the door, saying, 'LORD, open to us,' then HE will answer you, 'I do not know where you come from.' Then you will begin to say, 'We ate and drank in YOUR presence, and YOU taught in our streets.' But HE will say, 'I tell you, I do not know where you come from. Depart from ME, all you workers of evil!' In that place there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth, when you see Abraham and Isaac and Jacob and all the prophets in the Kingdom of GOD, but you yourselves cast out.

The Orgs were condemned and left flying around aimlessly in the paranormal darkness of outer space, without any purpose or direction, but that all quickly changed once GOD created mankind.
